Dear Joan:

A joy to hear from you.
Do you like my pretty new stationery? When Beth arrives & phones, I'll welcome her with 21 guns as your emissary.
I am tired. I've worked for 2 years now without so much as one week of loafing. I shall sit with you & view the St. Croix River Valley (know it? really beautiful) & relax. I'll finish the present (50,000 word) story in 3 weeks or so, & then I shall NEVER write anything again more arduous than labels on luggage... The book starts with a big advance sale.

I enclose advance copies of the reviews that will appear tomorrow. Also see the current

TIME magazine - issue dated

April 19. I hope you'll have your copy of the book by the time you receive this letter. Have you any def.

inside plans re jobs? And just when do you graduate?

Skate!!
