STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

St. Cloud, Minnesota

THE COLLEGE HYMN

Sing in praise to thee, our college,
High on oak-crowned banks,
Emblem of our search for knowledge,
Symbol of our youthful ranks.
Filled with fires of true ambition
Let us ever be
Loyal to thy fine tradition,
Hail! St. Cloud, T.C.

By the river's flowing waters,
By its islands fair,
May thy loyal sons and daughters
Thy enduring friendship share.
May they with sincere ambition
Through the years e'er be
Loyal to thy fine tradition
Hail! St. Cloud, T.C.

COLLEGE ROUSER

Oh! here we are the gang and all
To cheer our team to victory
St. Cloud T.C. has heard the call
We're here to show our loyalty
Rah! Rah!
C'mon boys! Fight!
We'll win this game
And show our colors—black and red
We'll sing this song both loud and long
To Victory St. Cloud T.C.

TO YOUTH

"Here is your armour: the shield of glorious youth,
The keen spurs of the mind, the sword of vision.
Go forth and find the Holy Grail of Truth,
Unmindful of the multitude's derision.

"Today is yours, and yours the confidence
Of garnered knowledge and our past mistakes;
Subdue the hosts of ignorance and pretense;
Bring back the only Cup our thirsting slakes.

"You shall erase the scars of this dark hour,
The lines of hunger and the wounds of pain;
Yours the great spirit that must rise to power
And give a lost world peace and faith again."

—Marion Doyle.

GREETINGS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

The St. Cloud State Teachers College extends heartiest welcome to all at the beginning of the school year which promises to be both profitable and unique. We welcome students of last year who return in order to complete a course of study. We welcome especially those who come to the campus for the first time either from high school or by transfer from other colleges. We welcome also those who return from employment in the business world or from services in the armed forces of the United States.

This year will be unique because we know that the student body and the faculty will grow in numbers with the return of people from the war. As a result, many activities which have been dormant during the long war period will revive.

We hope all members of the freshman class will quickly adjust to the life of our college community in order that they may become useful and cooperative college citizens and participate in a balanced course of study and recreation. We believe that all of you will be happy in your college life and that these personal and professional associations will furnish pleasant recollections for many years to come. The college desires to help you, one and all, to grow and to achieve.

—Dudley S. Brainard
President.

FROM OUR DEANS, TOO

Welcome to you! As the new college year begins the faculty and students join you in looking forward to the many educational, cultural, and social opportunities offered on this campus and in this community. There are new experiences in store for you—new friends to make, new standards to meet, new studies to master, and new activities in which to participate.

As your friend and counselor, I am anticipating a good year full of work and fun for you. Soon you will feel “at home” with us because this is a friendly college.

Beth Porter Garvey
Dean of Women

We are happy to welcome all of you as new students to our campus. We will try to make your introduction to college life a natural and relatively easy transition. Problems will arise in the course of your experience that you have not met with before. Perhaps these problems may even confuse you. Do not hesitate to consult any member of the faculty or your student counselor. We are here to help you solve your problems and to help you grow. There is hard work ahead but it is not unmingled with pleasure. It is our objective to continue as a friendly, student centered college.

J. J. Weismann
Dean of Men

STUDENT GREETINGS

Hi there, freshmen!

Looking forward to your first days at T.C.? So are we and we are going to do all we can to make those first days memorable. To do this and help acquaint you girls with the campus and college life, we have a campus sister organization. Each new girl is contacted by an upperclass campus sister who is interested in helping you get started at T.C.

So here's to a grand start at T.C. in September and we'll be seeing you then.

Marie Schelfhout

Campus Sister Chairman.

Congratulations on your choice of college and welcome to T.C.! The student body is comparatively small so let's get acquainted quickly. We urge you to take part in the campus social life and student activities as we need your help to make this year a success. Be enthusiastic in everything you do and in that way make the most of your college life.

Richard M. Baker

President, Student Council.

IN GENERAL

This is your handbook—designed to answer all the questions you, as a new student, may have to ask on first entering T.C. It is sponsored and supervised by the Student Council of the college. It is your guide to all the “ins and outs” of T.C. There is probably a great deal you would like to know about the college. For instance, you might ask:

IS IT EASY TO GET ACQUAINTED AT T.C.?

That feeling of strangeness upon entering new surroundings isn't confined to you. It's quite common, particularly among freshmen. To help you get acquainted with the campus, the faculty, and the other students, a whole week of activities has been planned. You'll meet your counselors and Campus Sisters (or Brothers) who will show you around. Upperclassmen can be very helpful, you'll find. You'll have fun seeing the campus and making new friends. Before one week is over, you'll really feel at home. Here's what you have to look forward to the first week:

PREPARATORY CURRICULUMS

In order to contribute its share in attempting to meet the demand for pre-professional and pre-vocational education, as well as general college education, created by the influx of veterans, the

St. Cloud State Teachers College is now prepared to offer opportunity for preparation in these areas. Fourteen curriculums have been arranged and have been approved by the University of Minnesota as being comparable to those offered at the university. Programs of study may be adapted for certain other areas. Students may enroll in any one of these areas with the assurance that they may transfer later without loss of credit. The curriculums and advisers therefor follow:

If you haven't sent your high school record to the college registrar, do so at once. Write to the registrar for a regular admission blank, and return it immediately, properly filled out.

Mr. Weismann, the Dean of Men, will assign a locker to you if you request one. His office is in Old Main. There is no charge for the locker, but you must furnish your own lock.

Students are not properly registered in the college until they have had their picture taken. During the first week, four photographs are taken for $.50. Three are kept in the college files, and one may be kept by the student.

VETERANS CENTER

The Veterans Administration maintains offices at the college to handle the guidance and training of veterans in a large area covering central Minnesota. A staff of trained counselors is on hand at all times to give a complete guidance service to veterans. In addition, the high school General Education Development Tests are offered to veterans wishing to complete high school and the college General Education Development Tests for veterans wishing to bridge the first year of college. A staff of training officers is stationed here to supervise and place in training veterans both on-the-job and in school. Information of all kinds concerning veterans is gladly given. The center is at the service of all veterans at all times.

JUST FOR YOU

Students at T. C. soon find that they are not considered merely vacuums into which knowledge will be poured. The program of the college provides services for a well-balanced and thorough adjustment. Among the many services extended are:— Counseling, both academic and personal, Financial Aids through employment and loans, Health, Speech Helps, Living Arrangements, Library, Social and Cultural Activities, and Placement.

Counseling. Every new student is assigned to a trained upperclassman who is ready to give all the help desired in academic or personal problems. The deans and faculty members are also very willing to assist new students.

Financial Aids. Jobs either on or off campus can be secured through the Student Personnel Office. Part-time jobs are numerous. There are also opportunities to work for board and room. You should remember to lessen your study load if you are earning part of your expenses. Loans are available to deserving students who need financial help. Students interested in working or in securing a loan should contact either Dean Garvey or Dean Weismann.

Health. The Health Service of the college is always available to the students. The intelligent student practices good health habits, including adequate rest, recreation, diet, and a well-balanced study and work schedule. Miss Barker will be glad to help you with diet or food problems.

Speech Helps. Students are given a short speech test which reveals poor speech habits to be corrected. Miss Cook will arrange for correcting your deficiency.

Living Arrangements. There are two residence halls available for women students:—Shoemaker for upperclass girls, and Lawrence for freshman girls. Both are located on the campus. Eastman Home, near the campus, is a home for men. Students also live in private homes approved by the college. Freshman women must present a written request from parents to live in these private homes. More information may be obtained from the Deans' offices.

Library. A very useful building is the college library. It is full of all types of reading material for your studies or your pleasure.

The library is open Monday through Thursday from 7:45 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; on Fridays from 7:45 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and on Saturdays from 8:15 to 12:00 noon. It is also open Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 8:55.

On the main floor of the library, you will find the regular two-week books, the latest magazines and current newspapers, and picture, pamphlet, and clipping files. All materials may be checked out at the desk just inside the entrance door.

Reserve books are found on the second floor of the library in the Reserve Room, where books may be checked out for two-hour periods during the day and may be read in the adjoining reading room or may be checked out for overnight use between 4:00 and 5:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday; after 2:00 p.m. on Friday; and after 11:00 a.m. on Saturday. A fine of ten cents for the first hour and five cents for each succeeding hour is charged for overdue reserve books.

Some hints about the library in general: Fines will be cut in half if the overdue book is returned by 8:30 on the morning following the due date. When leaving the library, show your book to the person at the entrance desk. If you are carrying a textbook, show the inside back cover. This assists the library in giving you the best service.

Social and Cultural Activities. Outside activities at T. C. cover the entire field of possibilities. Concerts, lectures, recitals, and many other cultural programs are offered. On the other hand, there are picnics, informal parties, frequent teas, and formal dances. There are opportunities for a fine development of character and personality through the extra-curricular activity program.

Placement. T. C. graduates naturally wish to secure good teaching position upon completion of the two-year or four-year course. These positions are easily obtained through the services of the Placement Bureau located in Room "A" of Old Main.

HOW DO WE FIND OUR WAY AROUND?

When you register you will be given a program card with your class and instructor's name written on it. Your room assignment can be found on a large board on the west wall on the first floor corridor of Old Main, near the Business Office.

If your class room is numbered A-Q, it is on the main floor of Old Main. If your class room is numbered 3-7, it will be on the north wing of the second floor in Old Main. Rooms 11-15 are on the south wing of second floor.

If your card reads EH, that means the room is in Eastman Hall. All physical education activities are carried on here, and some other classes as well.

The Auditorium is located on the second floor.

The buildings are locked at 5:30 p.m. each day. Activity groups meeting in the evening are admitted by their faculty advisers.

WHY AN ACTIVITY FEE?

Perhaps you wonder just what that $8.00 fee is for? Upon payment of the fee you will receive a ticket which entitles you to admittance to any home basketball or football game, as well as the numerous concerts, lectures, and other programs held on the campus.

The activity fee also covers subscription cost of the Chronicle, the college paper, and the Talahi, the college yearbook.

Last, but certainly not least, your activity fee entitles you to another ticket which will admit you to the fine Civic Music programs, sponsored by the Civic Music Association. Nationally and internationally known artists and orchestras appear every season.

WHERE IS MAIL DELIVERED?

The center of activities at T. C. is the Student Post Office in Old Main. Mail is delivered twice daily from the downtown post-office. In addition to your mail, notices for organization meetings, conferences, and other business matters are placed in your box which will be assigned to you shortly after the fall quarter begins. Go there at least once daily!

Stamps, money orders, postal cards, etc., can be purchased at the desk in the Business Office. Your letters and packages. . .yes, even your laundry can be mailed in the Business Office.

WHAT ABOUT LOANS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Several loan funds are available to students who may need financial aid. Application for loans should be made through the office of the Deans. There is a Twentieth Century Club Loan Fund, Alumni Association Loan Fund, W. S. G. A. Scholarship Loan, Clarence Atwood Loan Fund.

There are also four scholarships for T. C. students: the Kathrine Kimball Eastman Memorial Fund, Alice M. Eastman Scholarship Fund, and the Stephen H. Somsen Scholarship. These are awarded to selected students during the year.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE

The Health Service is located in a suite of rooms adjoining Room 4 in Eastman Hall. The staff includes a full-time public health nurse, student assistants, and three local physicians, who serve in rotation. Students are also referred to specialists when necessary. Health service includes: (1) physical examinations; (2) immunization; (3) tuberculosis control; (4) care of illness and injury; (5) consultation on mental and physical health problems.

The physical examination record includes a health history. Each student should bring the following information from his family doctor and high school health records: (1) dates and kinds of vaccinations and inoculations, (2) results of Mantoux tests and chest x-rays he may have had, (3) record of the communicable diseases he has had and the approximate age at which he had each disease, (4) any other information which his family doctor feels we should have. The defects and abnormalities noted during the examination are rechecked by the nurse and the college physician; recommendations are made for their care and treatment.

The college nurse refers students to the college physician for diagnosis, recommendations, treatment, and consultation. A college physician is in attendance at the Health Service at specified hours once or twice a week. Each student is entitled to one house or office call by the college physician each quarter. This call must be authorized by the college nurse. Succeeding calls are at the student's own expense.

The college does not have an infirmary. A student who requires bedside nursing care or special treatments is either hospitalized locally or sent to his own home, depending upon the nature of the illness. Page 28 in the College Bulletin gives further details concerning the financial responsibility assumed by the college for hospitalization.

The college assumes financial responsibility for x-rays and care of intercollegiate athletic injuries.

The Health Service maintains a stock of medications and ointments for treatment of the more common illnesses and skin conditions. These medications and ointments are dispensed free of charge under the direction of the college physicians. The student must fill other prescriptions at his own expense.

ABSENCES

Cases of illness are to be reported to the Health Service by the house mother on the first day of the student's absence. If a student has been absent because of illness he must report to the Health Service so that the college nurse may determine whether or not the student should return to class. If the student has been under the care of the Health Service or a private physician he is given a white readmission slip. If the illness was not reported he receives a blue readmission slip. Absences for reasons other than illness or necessary medical or dental care are handled by the student's instructors.

WOMEN'S LOUNGE

The young women enjoy the attractive lounge in Old Main whenever they drop in there to read, to visit, to meet a friend, or to take a nap. For emergency illness there is a comfortable cot provided with screens to make it private. The radio, current magazines, the morning (daily) newspaper and interesting books make this lounge a place in which to relax a few minutes during the busy college days.

LOSE SOMETHING?

Maybe you'll find it in T.C.'s Business Office where the Lost and Found Department is located. If you find something. . .take it to the telephone operator's desk in the Business Office.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR POINTS

T.C. has adopted an activity point system for the purpose of recognizing membership and active participation in the college extra-curricular program.

A minimum of six points is required for the two-year students, and twelve points for the four-year students.

The list of points can be found on the Student Council bulletin board.

COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Council is a student governing association that cooperates with the faculty in planning and directing student life on the campus. The executive board, which heads the council, is composed of the four class presidents, and four elected officers. Representatives of the ma-major departments of the student organizations also serve on the council.

The Student Council Executive Board 1946-47

President Richard Baker
Vice-President Helen Butler
Secretary Maxine Johnson
Treasurer Ray Zarkariasen
Senior Class President Bob Tuttle
Junior Class President Velko Rajacich
Sophomore Class President George Jefferson
Freshman Class President To be elected

Campus Organizations: T.C. Students have many opportunities to participate in club activities which promote social and cultural development. The schedule of meetings will be posted in the student post office. Complete information can be found in the College Bulletin regarding the number and type of clubs, with a brief description of each. During your first week at college you will also be given further information. You'll be wise to join those clubs that mirror your individual interests. You'll be wise to choose a well-balanced program of activities—not too many. Your academic work should have priority.

CLASS POLICIES

In order to facilitate the organization and planning of class activities, certain class policies and procedures have been formulated by the freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors.

They are, namely:

1. Class officers: scholarship requirement of C or above.

2. Class advisers: each class has two faculty advisers (one woman and one man); freshman advisers appointed by the administration; sophomore advisers chosen by the class and retained by that class until graduation.
3. Class records: continued in same book for the four years, i.e. class of 1950.
4. Planning committee with advisers sets up the activities and budget for the year.
5. Class dues: amount regulated by the needs as determined by the budget. Collected the seventh week of the fall quarter except the freshman class which collects the seventh week of the winter quarter. Balance at the end of the year to be used at the discretion of the classes.
6. Nominations for class officers are to be posted one week before elections.

CONCERNING HOURS

Hours for freshmen differ a little from those kept by upperclassmen. During the fall quarter, the hour at which freshmen should be in their rooms is 8:30 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

During the winter and spring quarters all students should be in their rooms at 10:00 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. If a student is not achieving satisfactory academic results he must observe 8:30 p.m. study hours.

Week-end hours for all students are 12:00 p.m. Friday and Saturday night, and 11:00 p.m. on Sunday night. Upperclassmen may have 1:00 a.m. nights on alternate Saturdays.

No callers or telephone calls should be received after 8:00 p.m. on study evenings (Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday).

Quiet hours should be observed in all houses between 8:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday; and between 11:00 p.m. and 7:30 a.m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

On special occasions which the Dean of Women approves, women students are allowed late leaves after the prescribed hours. Generally, lights are to be out at 11:00 p.m. When upper classmen need the lights later than 11:00 p.m., the housemother should grant the privilege. Freshmen, ordinarily, should not ask for the lights later than 11:00 p.m. if they maintain a well planned study schedule.

ABOUT CLOTHES

Dear Jane,

So you're ready for college! It doesn't seem possible that you've grown up already. When you wrote me asking me to give you some idea of what was worn on the campus at T.C., I remember vividly my qualms on the same subject when I was getting ready to enter T. C. as a freshman. I decided to give out with the advice right away.

First of all, I'd like to put your mind at rest. It really isn't such a problem. Your sweaters and skirts are just the thing for college. Don't forget your saddle shoes. Casual, but not careless, clothes are best for classroom wear. You'll want a few "dressy numbers" for teas, parties and dates. And oh, yes—there will be formal dances. T. C. has changed since its wartime-limitation days. Formals are also needed for concerts, if you will be singing in one of the choral groups, and for society initiations. You'll find plenty of uses for your slacks, too—picnics, and hikes to Talahi Lodge or the quarries. You can wear your slacks on the campus, also.

One last word, Jane—don't buy a whole new wardrobe for college. Remember your clothes will all be new at T. C. You don't have to look as if you had stepped from a page of Vogue. Just be natural—and well groomed.

I'll be looking forward to seeing you at T. C.

Eleanor.

P.S. Don't forget to bring hangers. You must hang all these clothes on something, you know. The dormitories don't furnish hangers.

FINALLY

A FEW CONCLUDING THOUGHTS. . .

We hope this little book has answered some of your questions about T.C. and will be of help during those "red letter" first days at college.

We're glad you decided to come to St. Cloud Teachers College because we think it's a pretty special place; and we feel sure you will soon agree. Things are bound to seem a bit strange at first, but soon you'll be feeling as if you'd always been here! You will find the faculty and student body a remarkably friendly lot—and we're not saying that just to fill up space. It's a statement overheard often when new students get together.

Upper classmen aren't a bad bunch, really. Ask them questions, let them know your problems; they can really be quite helpful and even comforting, should the need arise.

Become acquainted with the college customs, traditions, and standards; they are a part of St. Cloud T.C.

Organize your study schedule early in the quarter and you'll be able to keep up without undue "cramming". Don't forget—it's still true that the most important factor in your education is you, and what you put forth in effort.

You'll be sorry—if you fail to take advantage of the lectures, concerts, plays, and other entertainments offered during the year. They're planned for you, and your cash helps pay for them, treat them accordingly!

Lastly, at college you will gain many things: knowledge, culture, ideals, friendships—but we hope that you will come to give as well as to gain. For it is you who make our school and who will carry on its standards and traditions.

We'll be seeing you!
