Dear Claude:

Collier's has decided to start the serial earlier than they had expected -- in the number for February 13th which will be on sale about February 10th.

In order to have a little more quiet to do the play on which I have now started, I am leaving for Bermuda tomorrow, to be gone three or four weeks. That is a trip which Mary and you should consider some time. It is only two days away from New York and yet in that brief time you come to an island which is at once English and subtropical.

Then I'll return to New York and be here till about February, then go West, at which time I shall probably see you.

Ever,
