Frances E. Willard to Mrs. Jane Grey Swisshelm Nov. 26, 1880

[Mitchell Papers -- A.L.S.]

Evanston, Nov 26 1880

My Dear Mrs Swisshelm.

Your coveted book just came to hand, on my return home. I am more than glad you've done it and that I see it. Will write notices for our "Temprancers," the general press has shown genuine appreciation. I thank God for your life & your brave woman-hero-soul. Am sending you some of my dabblings in ink. How's Zoe? Ever yours,

Frances E. Willard
