Young and Innocent

There's an echo in The wind, makes me wonder where I've been. All The years I've left behind, faded pictures in my mind. Mystified, there is laughter dancing in the air. Here we are without a care. Now it's hard for me to see, it's not as easy as it used to be. Now maybe yesterday is gone... The things we shared were never wrong. Come back then, I need you now. I know that you're out there, I'll find you somehow. I want that feeling back again, so we can be young and innocent... Where nothing matters but the moment we are in. Let's shut our eyes and pretend. And maybe once again, we can be young and innocent. Though maybe yesterday is gone, the dreams we shared were never wrong, Come back then, I need you now. I know you're out there, I'll find you somehow. I want that feeling back again, so we can be young and innocent... Where all that mattered was the moment we were in. Just shut our eyes and pretend, And maybe once again, we can be young and innocent. I want that feeling back again... Young and innocent. Nothing matters but the moment that we're in. Let's shut our eyes and pretend and maybe once again...

When we boarded that plane last March, none of us knew what to expect out of the following five months. We had no idea how close we were going to get and didn't realize we would make so many life-long friendships. I know we haven't all seen eye to eye on a lot of things during our time together, but hopefully when we look back on the last 5 months all we'll have are good memories of each other. I don't think it'll ever be too late to start building friendships with each other so let's promise to keep in touch! I would like to thank the 9 month students for all of the help they gave us during our first weeks in Aalborg. You put up with a lot of confusion + questions from all of us. We really appreciated it! Thanks to Kristen + Eric for all of your help + guidance the past 5 months - you made all of our lives easier. Thanks also to Cheryl + Bruce for being 2 of the best directors we could ask for. Bud, Erma, Tom + Carrie... you were the best! Let's stay in touch!! We've all made it through hostel life + all its problems, traveling together, parties + so much more! We're a family + families stick together so...

KEEP IN TOUCH!!

I Love you!
