T2006 – "TRIVIA ON THE HIGH SEAS"

Hour 47 (3:00 PM)

Beginning Black out!

51% 500 pts For 500 trivia points, please give us the name of the shipwreck based on the following five clues:

Clue 1 - Adding the sum of the digits for the year it was built to the sum of the digits for the year it was sunk equals 29.

Clue 2 - The sum of the digits for the year it was built is five higher than the sum of the digits for the year it was sunk.

Clue 3 - The ship's official number is a six digit number with two and zero being the first and second digits, in that order.

Clue 4 - Take the last four digits of the ship's official number and divide them by the first digit of the ship's official number. The answer, when rounded up, is equal to the year this shipwreck was discovered.

Clue 5 - The number of the contest holds the clue as to what body of water the shipwreck lies in.

You have roughly two hours to figure out the clues and put a name to this sunken treasure. Good luck.

2006 Tanna Hall of Fame inductee

Jo,

I just wanted to say thank you to you and everyone involved in the trivia process. As you could probably tell, we did not expect this at all. The combination of shock and exhaustion made it seem like it really didn't happen. We consider it the highest honor to be inducted into the Hall of Fame with all of the other inductees. When I left the auditorium, I had about 10 messages on my cell phone from remote team members. It was awesome. Again, thank you for all things trivia, and we are looking forward to next year already.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Pederson
Head Cheerleader.

KVSC Radio -

On behalf of the Senate Finance Committee, we wanted to give a special congratulation on a successful Trivia weekend and to all the staff and volunteers that helped make it a success. I have heard many great complements in regards to the weekend events and wanted to you to know that efforts were most definitely noticed.

Thank you,

Senate Finance Committee

Jo and KVSC-

One of the highlights of the Red Carpet is that I've been able to catch you and say "thank you". I didn't get that opportunity. So...

Thank you.

Very much.

For keeping Trivia going strong.

Dear Jo,

Thank you! Checking the other pieces of e-mail in my inbox, I see that Jim Gray has already sent me the information requested. Nice! We'll use this additional information to plan for next year's trivia contest.

We had a fun time as usual this year, by the way. Thank you (all) for your efforts and for those of the countless nameless, faceless, and tireless (but not headless, except for the cowboy monkey) KVSC staffmembers and volunteers who make this something to look forward to year after year!

Kudos, in spades!

Sincerely,
Kent Orth,
