ANDERSON, ANDREW M.

File No. B-22

Among the early Swedish immigrants that came to the United States and St. Cloud, we find Andrew M. Anderson. Andrew M. Anderson was born in Vermland, Sweden, October 15, 1860, a son of Oscar and Johanna (Johnson) Anderson. As a youth Andrew attended the public schools until he reached the age of thirteen years. After the completion of his education Andrew assisted his father on his farm until 1887, at which time he came to the United States. After his arrival in Boston he came directly to St. Cloud. Here he was employed on the section for two years. In 1890 Andrew accepted a position in a stone quarry. His employer was Edward Carlson. Andrew continued working in various quarries until 1930, when he retired.

Andrew M. Anderson was married November 10, 1894, to Matilda Olson at Ronneby, Minnesota. Matilda Olson was born March 28, 1868 at Ronneby, Minnesota. Andrew M. and Matilda (Olson) Anderson were the parents of the following children: Albin, Elizabeth, Esther, Mabel, and Olga. Albin is married to Lillian Johnson, they live in St. Cloud. Elizabeth is the wife of Ed. Peterson, they live in Minneapolis, Esther is the wife of L. W. Tibbett, they also live in Minneapolis. Mabel is the wife of Edward Anderson, they live in Chipewa Falls, Wisconsin. Olga is the wife of Joe Kiklas, they live in St. Cloud. Andrew and Matilda (Olson) Anderson reside at 1650 St. Germain Street.
