NEW YORK CITY

Dear Claude:

The new play seems to be going extremely well. Of course having Fred Stone for the star will endear it to a good many hundreds of thousands of people.

On Saturday I had Freeman, Judy, Virginia, Isabel and Hal Smith -- the well-known publisher and an old friend of mine -- for lunch. I think that Mary and you would be extremely proud of all three of your children!

I doubt that it will be possible for Dorothy to go from Minneapolis up to St. Cloud on her lecture tour as she is going to be terribly driven throughout the whole trip. I shall be glad when she is finished lecturing and I have the play on the boards. I have a dirty and sneaking plan to kidnap her and take her over to Europe for a couple of months during which neither one of us will do a lick of work.

I wonder if by any chance you heard her on the radio last Thursday. I think she was rather magnificent -- but then, I may be prejudiced.

My love to both of you.

Ever,

Harry
