ANDERSON, THOMAS

File No. 2-27

Thomas Anderson was born in Winnebago county, Wisconsin, on the 5th of December, 1855. He came with his parents to Minnesota in 1863, who located on a forty acre lot the following year, fearing to buy extensively because of anticipated trouble with the Indians. His father, John U. Anderson, purchased the first land in the town of North Fork, and was one of the first settlers; he died in 1869. The family still remain on the old homestead. One of his sisters is the wife of Kittle Halverson, living in the neighborhood. Thomas has lived here since 1864, with the exception of a year and a half at Wilmar, where he was deputy Postmaster and agent of the Express Company. In 1879, he opened a general store on section thirty-three, the only store within a radius of ten miles. He does a successful business, being also engaged in the buying and selling of stock.
