BENNETT, CHARLES H.

File No. 89

Charles Bennett was born in Canada March 14, 1841. His early years were spent there. For about four years he was engaged in the mercantile business, and the next two in the milling business.

In 1869, Charles came to Sauk Centre where he worked in the flour mill of Moore and McClure. He was promoted to general superintendent of the mills.

In 1875, Charles Bennett married Margaret Fowlds, a native of Scotland. They had two children in 1881, Thomas E. and Theresa E.

Charles Bennett was instrumental in getting the city park where the old Grubas Brewery stood.
