IM NEWS

March, 1981 Volume XIV Number 2

An Information Media Newsletter published by the Learning Resources Center and the Center for Library and Audiovisual Education/Centennial Hall, St. Cloud State University.

FROM THE CENTER

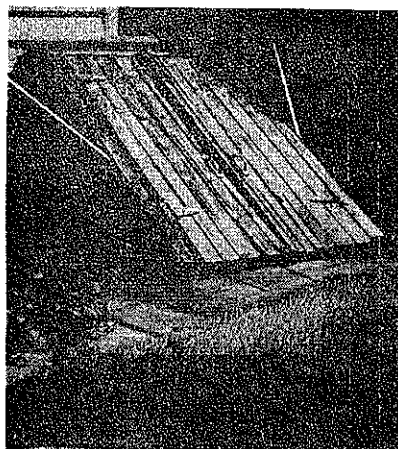

This is the mid-year interim newsletter with basic information about our summer plans. If you remember, with cutbacks and budget crunches, it was necessary to limit our publication of the IM NEWS to two full editions (fall and spring). Look for the second major edition sometime in late April. In the meantime, if you have any news for inclusion, please write us.

With the mild winter and the current spell of warm weather, it has been easier to get into the mood for summer courses. The accompanying flyers pretty well expand our theme--"EXPAND YOUR CREATIVITY THROUGH MEDIA." Develop your own creativity and expand your mind by taking one or more of the exciting workshops and courses we have planned. The highlight of the summer will be the one-day conference with Judith Guest, the author of Ordinary People. The best selling book as you may well know has been made into a film by Robert Redford and has been nominated for many academy awards. In the conference entitled "From Novel to Screen" Judith Guest will share her experiences in writing the book, the problems involved in publication, and the transformation of the novel into a film script.

Other attractions will include a contemporary materials workshop which will precede the Judith Guest Conference (the conference is not part of the workshop); and workshops in such areas as animation, puppetry, learning centers, censorship, oral history, a photo tour, AACR II will be available in addition to our usual array of courses. A few spots still remain on the Fields and Schulzetenberg tour to the Alps.

Refer to the summer bulletin for class times, schedules, fees, etc. If you need any help or information, please feel free to call or write the Center for Library and Audiovisual Education, St. Cloud State University (phone: 612-255-2062).
