IM NEWS

May, 1981

An Information Media Newsletter published by the Learning Resources Center and the Center for Library and Audiovisual Education/Centennial Hall, St. Cloud State University.

The following items may be of importance to you:

Wonder why you haven't seen the usual issues of the IM NEWSLETTER? Just one of those things that got cut out with the lack of funds available to run our state institutions. Hopefully we will be able to come out with a good issue in early fall. If you have any information, or if anything exciting happens this summer, drop us a line. We're always glad to hear from you!

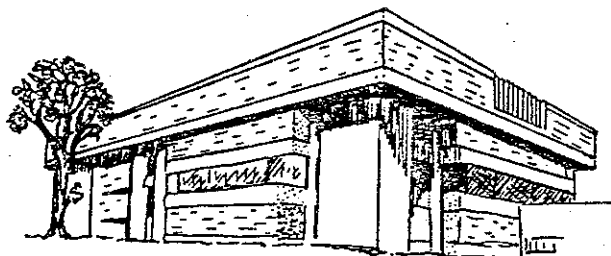

Dr. James May has resigned his position as head of the Center for Library and Audiovisual Education and will be replaced by Tony Schulzetenberg effective June 1, 1981. Dr. May, after two years at St. Cloud, will be returning to the Indiana environs.

The ORDINARY PEOPLE: FROM NOVEL TO SCREEN conference, featuring Judith Guest has been cancelled because of scheduling difficulties. We would appreciate your sharing this information with others in the media field and with the language arts and public librarians in your area.

Please note the schedule of summer school enclosed. The classes and seminars, so far as we know and provided enough students enroll for each, will be held as scheduled. This is an opportunity to expand your creativity--talk it up with your colleagues!

Notice especially the summer tour to Northern Minnesota. This is another in a series of attempt to provide meaningful tours for those interested in particular areas.

Don't forget the 16th Annual Educational Media and Technology Conference at the University of Wisconsin-Stout to be held on July 20-22nd. Ben Franckowiak, Dean, Graduate School of Librarian and Information Management, University of Denver, will be the featured speaker.
