Dear Ginny:

Yes, I'll be in Minnesota soon -- though not till about April 24th, not the 15th. No, I have no pictures of the house yet, but I shall have some taken in Duluth, as soon as the trees come out, and I'll send you one, when I hear from you.

The book will be out on October 3d; the Cosmopolitan serial will be on the stands in about a week now. Did I tell you that my heroine is named Virginia -- only I spell her familiar name Jinny, not Ginny.

I'm tired after a year of book, with now the proofs and a lot of little accumulated jobs on top -- tired but well, and I shall be glad to motor out to Minnesota (I'm allowed gas rations to get my car out there, as I'm changing residence) and chase around outdoors and forget the very look of typewriter keys.

Micky will be out with me for a few weeks. I hope to go up into the Arrowshead with him. I'll spend a week or so in Minneapolis on my way and see all our old friends. No, I have never heard from nor of Faubian since I last saw him in Minneapolis.

Love -- ever --

Uncle
