PLACEMENT BUREAU

Dear Virginia:

We were much interested in your nice article in the Star about barefoot homes. The galley proof of our book arrived last Wednesday. Saturday it went back all corrected. Coming just at the end of the quarter kept misery much occupied for a few days.

I am sending some nice letters which come from Chit Lund about ^{one of} your articles.

Dr. Dickson-Lewis is to have an operation right after the wedding. Very likely this will end his working days.

Snow fell all yesterday so we are well snowed in. Charles has the chains on the car. Otherwise you cannot avoid get stuck in the alley. This has been our longest and coldest winter. Mrs. Bentley arrived yesterday for the weekend.

I am of the opinion that the 3rd World War is just around the corner - probably in the latter summer, as soon as the harvest has been well begun. Attempts to organize the western nations are coming too late and will be incomplete and ineffective. The Russian leaders think they can conquer the world. They may succeed. They are in an immensely stronger position than Hitler was ever able to construct. I am now reading Byrnes: Speaking Frankly

I do hope the Republicans will select an outstanding statesman as their candidate. It is very necessary because the election will be a push-over for the Republicans. He can't come down to Dulles on the 14th. The Duke Symphony Orchestra gives a concert here on that date. I fear the visit must be postponed until April. Tech won the 18th Dick Championship last night. This Love afternoon we are going to Tech to hear Ned May in the Band Concert. Daddy.

Charles has a new suit of clothes - brown - it looks very nice. Dennis Sherry and Priscilla Harrow's baby was baptized at church today.
