Thursday Morning

Nov. 10.

1949

Dear Jimmy:-

Before starting my morning's work I want to write you a short note.
Arrived home at 10. Met the bus. It certainly was not crowded.

Dick was certainly the taxi driver for the Brainards yesterday which made it very fine for me. Hope you were able to sleep last night after your full day with awake and guests in the afternoon and evening.

Lorraine Mrs. Rau comes to clean, a luncheon, and executive Board meeting and so it goes. but next week I have Faculty wives here on Wed. So you and Dick better plan your arrival after 5 as the house will be full of women - we plan on 50.

It looks like another lovely day just as it was 20 years ago when Mr. Charles came on Sunday morning.

Found everything ok here - Ned's room still in a mess because the painting is half done in his room. He had a debate this morning at 9:30 everything stopped in deference to that. I have set tomorrow as the deadline. Unless that painting is finished he doesn't go out. We have been upset for over a week.

I have a full day, the weekly cleaning up stairs this P.M. Helping with the Centennial Tea for 20th Century this afternoon and a birthday dinner for Chuck tonight.

Well my dear Jane I realize that you had such a fine comeback yesterday - I hope today that you will feel stronger -

We will be down in afternoon between 3:30 and

Much love and take good care of yourself -

Mother .
