BROWN SOLOMON F.

File No. B-173

Solomon F. Brown was born in Massachusetts in 1817, but removed to Rhode Island. From there he came to Maine Prairie in 1857, and took a claim, built a house and began farming. He was the first town clerk of the town. He was also elected superintendent of common schools. In 1861, he enlisted in the fourth regiment and rose from the ranks to First Lieutenant in command. At the battle of Vicksburg he was wounded, and while in hospital was delegated on court martial in civil and military commission for three months, until the close of the war. He began studying and practicing medicine in the army, and has continued to practice homeopathy since his return. He has had a large practice.
