DAM, JOSEPH

File No. B-268

Joseph Dam was born in Cumberland, Maine in 1830. In 1856 he arrived at Maine Prairie. His wife and only daughter, Ada A., joined him the next year. He took a claim, adjoining his brother Hurcules', and carried on his farm for eight or nine years. His wife died and he went to Dakota, where he has resided ever since. Mr. Dam was a quiet citizen, a good neighbor, charitable and kind hearted. His family were intelligent and well educated, and the community keenly felt their loss when they moved away.
