EISENREICH, CHARLES A.

FILE NO. B-327

Charles A. Eisenreich was born in Germany in 1871 to John and Mary (Waninger) Eisenreich.

Charles came to America with his parents in 1874 when he was three years of age. They first settled at Saint George, in Meeker County, and in 1895 they moved to Clara City and from there to Lamberton, Minnesota. John Eisenreich farmed until the time of the death of his wife, Mary (Waninger) Eisenreich, who died in April 1920.

Mr. John Eisenreich went to Washington where he spent his remaining years and it was there he past away.

There were seven children in the Eisenreich family, John in Butte, Montana; Michael, Saint Cloud; Wilfred, in Chippawa Falls, Wisconsin; Joseph, Murduck, Minnesota; Marie (Eisenreich) Myers, Lamberton, Minnesota, Tillie (Eisenreich) Borreson, in Saint Cloud, Minnesota.

Charles Eisenreich was married on 27th day of April, 1908 to Mary Condon of Murduck, Minnesota. After their marriage, Charles started farming. He farmed for a period of five years, after which he took employment with the Great Northern Railway as chief engineer on the bridge crew. He held that position for two years and was then transfered to the car shops as a foreman, a job he held for five years. At that time he decided to take employment at the State Reformatory, where he remained for five years. He also worked for the Breen Hotel for two years and is now employed at the Royal Granite Company.

Charles and Mary (Condon) Eisenreich had seven children born to them William, Leonard (now dead) Leo, Clifford, Marie(Deceased) Mathilda, and Shirley Ann.
