HALL, JOSEPH PAUL

File No. B-476

Joseph Paul Hall was born March 10, 1862 at Aselfingen Bondorf, Boden, Germany, the son of Dionis and Ziela (Korumel) Hall.

In 1882 Dionis, the father, decided to bring his three children Joseph, Mathew and Mary to America to escape service in the Royal German army.

Upon their arrival in America Dionis brought his children to Saint Cloud, Minnesota, where he started a cartage business, which he continued until his death April 24, 1908.

Joseph found employment with Frank Seifert who was a plasterer. In 1885 Joseph worked for Fred Schilplin on the Minnesota news paper where he learned the printers trade, later working on the Der Nordstern and the Saint Cloud Daily Times until his retirement in 1920.

Joseph now makes his home with his cousin, John Hall, in Saint Cloud.
