

St. Cloud State University

The Repository at St. Cloud State

WPA Biographic Summaries

University Archives

3-28-1938

Hanna, John F. (1830 -)

Melba Peterson

Follow this and additional works at: <https://repository.stcloudstate.edu/wpabio>

Recommended Citation

Peterson, Melba, "Hanna, John F. (1830 -)" (1938). WPA Biographic Summaries. 467.
<https://repository.stcloudstate.edu/wpabio/467>

This Interview is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at The Repository at St. Cloud State. It has been accepted for inclusion in WPA Biographic Summaries by an authorized administrator of The Repository at St. Cloud State. For more information, please contact tdsteman@stcloudstate.edu.

HANNA, JOHN F.

File No. B-489

John F. Hanna, son of William Hanna, was born in St. Lawrence county, New York, March 17, 1830. He stayed there until 1853, when he went to Mininger, Minnesota, where he took a claim. He was one of the organizers of Miningers. In 1859, he went to the Red River country and remained until 1861. He then returned to St. Cloud and worked for the Minnesota State Company until the Indian outbreak of 1862. Then he enlisted in a regiment of cavalry and served three months.

He lived for a year at Hastings, then returned to St. Cloud where he resumed freighting business.

In 1866, he took a claim in Getty, Stearns County, where he lived for six years.

John Hanna moved into Sauk Centre in 1872. In 1881, he was employed as clerk in the Sauk Centre House Hotel.

Copied from: History of Upper Mississippi Valley
Copied by: Melba Peterson
Date copied: March 28, 1938