

St. Cloud State University

The Repository at St. Cloud State

---

WPA Biographic Summaries

University Archives

---

9-23-1937

Hansen, Edward H. (1882 - 1935)

Dorothy Hansmann

Follow this and additional works at: <https://repository.stcloudstate.edu/wpabio>

---

Recommended Citation

Hansmann, Dorothy, "Hansen, Edward H. (1882 - 1935)" (1937). WPA Biographic Summaries. 470.
<https://repository.stcloudstate.edu/wpabio/470>

This Interview is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at The Repository at St. Cloud State. It has been accepted for inclusion in WPA Biographic Summaries by an authorized administrator of The Repository at St. Cloud State. For more information, please contact tdsteman@stcloudstate.edu.

HANSEN, EDWARD H.

File No. B-493

Edward H. Hansen was born in Sauk Centre, February 10, 1882. A son of Hans Hansen.

He attended public school and grew to manhood in Sauk Centre. In 1898 he commenced work in the clothing store of Jacobi Bros. and Mack and thereby embarked in the business which he followed during his entire life. After he had been employed for two years in the local store, in 1900, he went to Detroit Lakes, where he was employed in the Blanding-Norby Co., clothing store. In 1902 he secured a position with O. J. Schei at Fergus Falls as manager of a clothing store where he remained until 1904 when his father, Hans Hansen, who was engaged in the clothing business with E. A. Richards, passed away. Shortly after the death of his father Edward H. Hansen entered into a partnership with his brother Rudolph E. Hansen and E. A. Richards as proprietors of the Model Clothing store, where he remained until his death. Two or three years later the Hansen brothers purchased the interest of E. A. Richards.

Edward H. Hansen was a member of the Episcopal Church and several Masonic organizations of Sauk Centre.

Edward H. Hansen died July 18, 1935.

Copied from: Sauk Centre Herald of July 25, 1935
Date Copied: September 23, 1937
Copied by: Dorothy Hansmann

HANSEN, EDWARD H.

Edward H. Hansen was born in Sauk Centre, Feb. 10, 1882, a son of Hans Hansen.

He attended public school and grew to manhood in Sauk Centre. In 1898 he commenced work in the clothing store of Jacobi Bros. and Mack and thereby embarked in the business which he followed during his entire life. After he had been employed for two years in the local store, in 1900, he went to Detroit Lakes, where he was employed in the Blanding-Norby Co., clothing store. In 1902 he secured a position with O. J. Schei at Fergus Falls as manager of a clothing store where he remained until 1904 when his father, Hans Hansen, who was engaged in the clothing business with E. A. Richards, passed away. Shortly after the death of his father Edward H. Hansen entered into a partnership with his brother Rudolph E. Hansen and E. A. Richards as proprietors of the Model Clothing Store, where he remained until his death. Two or three years later the Hansen brothers purchased the interest of E. A. Richards.

Edward H. Hansen was a member of the Episcopal Church and several Masonic organizations of Sauk Centre.

Edward H. Hansen died July 18, 1935

copied from: S. C. Herald, July 25, 1935

by: Dorothy Hansmann

Date: Sept. 23, 1938