HERZOG, FRANK

File No. B-553

Frank Herzog was born in Rockville, Minnesota, Stearns County, Minnesota, November 24, 1891, son of Frank H. Herzog and Elizabeth (Blommel) Herzog.

Frank H. Herzog was a native of Germany born at Danne, Oldenburg. As a young boy he worked as farm laborer and came to America. While in the eastern states he married Elizabeth Blommel, a girl from his native country and born also at Danne Oldenburg. After his marriage Frank H. Herzog migrated to Minnesota and started farming in section 17, township of Millwood.

To Frank H. Herzog and Elizabeth (Blommel) Herzog were born eleven children: Joseph; Ben; Frank; John; Rose (Herzog) Meyer; Agnes; Leo; Christine; Hildegard; William and Bertha. There are thirty-six grandchildren.

Frank H. Herzog died July 1, 1930 and Elizabeth (Blommel) Herzog died in 1931.

Frank Herzog attended Saint Rosa school and graduated from that institution, his teacher was Henry Stroetzel. He then attended the State Normal School at Saint Cloud. After graduation he taught school in District 72 of Melrose. He then filled the position as principal at Saint Anthony and later at Rockville. Frank remained at Rockville until 1918 and then enlisted in the World War. He served his country faithfully until the termination of the War and then worked as cashier in the bank at Sleepy Eye, Minnesota.

In 1928 Frank accepted a position in the county auditors office of Stearns County, which he held until 1935, he then resigned for the position of assistant Clerk of Probate Court. In 1936 he was promoted to Clerk of Probate Court, which position he still holds.
