Frederick Hollenhorst was born in Prussia, Germany in the year 1823. He came to the United States in 1847 locating in Evansville, Indiana and afterwards in Kentucky working at the carpenter trade. As a youth he learned the trades of cabinet-maker and carpenter.

He came down the Ohio River and landing in Saint Louis he took a steamboat to Saint Paul, from Saint Paul he came to Saint Cloud by ox team arriving in 1856. He bought property in Saint Cloud township, close to the present location of Waite Park.

He worked at his trade until 1869 when he bought a farm on section fifteen and sixteen in the township of St. Cloud.

Frederick Hollenhorst married Bernadine Robbers in 1851, they have three children: William, who married Anna Berger; Josephine; and Bernadine, who married George Heitzman and lives in Sauk Rapids.

After the Civil War, Frederick Hollenhorst worked for thirty-two months without pay, money was so scarce that labor was paid with due-bills and credit slips.
