LARSON, OLAF H.

File No. B-768

Olaf H. Larson was born in 1853 in Norway and came to this country in 1865, at the age of twelve. He started for Saint Cloud immediately after landing in America. Olaf worked for a farmer for a number of years. Mr. Larson was a miller by trade, and helped build the original Tileson Mill in Saint Cloud, there after it's completion he was engaged as a miller for three years. He then went to McIntosh, in Pope County, Minnesota, where he was also engaged as a miller. After three years he again returned to Saint Cloud, where he was employed at his usual trade and as carpenter until his death.

In 1895 he was married to Granda Engesether who was born in Rice County, Minnesota about 1870. To Olaf H. and Granda (Engesether) Larson were born six children, four of whom are still living. The oldest Henry S. Larson, was killed in a railroad accident about twenty-three years ago at Bemidji, Minnesota. Reverend John G. Larson, is a minister in Minnesota. Arthur M. Larson, lives in Iron Mountain, Michigan, where he is manager of the Woolworth Company store. Arthur M. is married and the father of three children. Einar Larson, is Superintendent of the Northern States Power Company Saint Cloud plant, south of the Tenth Street bridge, where he has been for thirty years. He started to work for the old Saint Cloud Light and Power Company. Einar Larson is the father of three children, one who is teaching school and Bertha Larson is now Mrs. Bertha Waggoner and lives in Los Angles, California. Inez Larson, has been dead for about ten years.

Mrs. Granda (Engesether) Larson has been dead for about ten years. Mr. Olaf H. Larson died in 1913.
