Choral Club Leaves for Milwaukee Meet

At 6 a.m. Friday 65 members of the College Choral club with their director, Mr. Harvey Waugh, will embark for Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to perform for the North Central Division meeting of the Music Educators National Conference.

They will perform in conjunction with an area meeting with the topic of "Music in Higher Education." This season convenes at 10 a.m. while the chorus performs at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday. At the same time other sections will be meeting with the same committee, yet Mr. Waugh estimates that the audience will number between five and six hundred.

The members of the Choral club will be traveling by chartered buses and will be staying at the Wisconsin hotel in Milwaukee. The group will be chaperoned by Miss Myrl Carlsen and Mr. Waugh. The Choral club will also participate in the Friday night Lobby Sing at the Hotel Schroeder which Mr. Waugh will be directing.

This is the first in about six years that Minnesota has had direct representation in the performing groups of this convention.

In addition to the Choral club, the Rochester high school band, the Brainerd high school a cappella choir, Duluth Denfeld high school band and the Viking male chorus from St. Olaf college will perform at the convention.

"This trip will be an educational trip as much as it will be a pleasure trip. This is the national professional organization of music educators at which time we have an opportunity to observe many discussions, displays and the 'cream of the crop' of performing organizations," said Mr. Waugh.

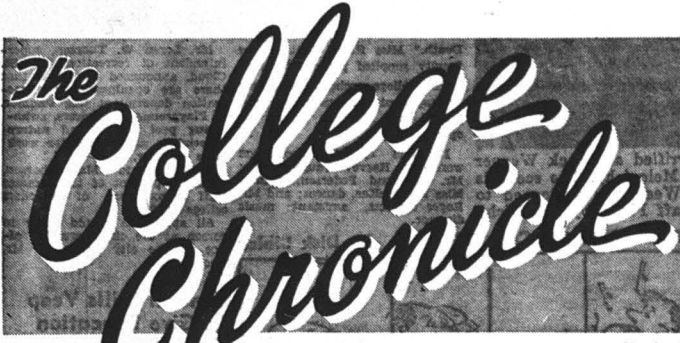

In addition to directing the Choral club and one of the Lobby Sings, Mr. Waugh is also the Minnesota representative to the convention, a member of the executive board and the sectional chairman for credentials for teaching music.

Other faculty members attending the convention are Miss Lorene Marvel and Mrs. Helen Huls. Mrs. Huls will speak on a panel at the vocal section.

The theme of the 1953 convention is "Education in the American scene and the contribution music makes to the over-all picture."

The Choral club trip was financed by the "Patch of Shamrocks" show, student council appropriation of activity funds, individual member help and departmental funds.

Health, Phy. Ed. Conference Held on Campus Saturday

Last Saturday the annual state Convention of Health and Physical Education was held at Eastman hall on the Teachers college campus.

The event began with a pre-convention square dance sponsored by the Square Dance club for the visitors on Friday evening.

On Saturday discussions were held on teaching tennis and golf, summer recreation programs, GAA problems and a panel. Members of the panel included: Dr. John Beuning of St. Cloud; Miss Lillie Asturp, college nurse; Mr. Kenneth Halverson of Sauk Rapids and Mr. John Roach of Glencoe.

Baritone In Evening Convo Here

Norman Farrow, a young Canadian baritone, will present a concert in the Stewart hall auditorium this evening at 8:15 p. m.

His career since the war has been highlighted by radio network broadcasts, recordings, and concerts with symphony orchestras.

Mr. Farrow has worked on the stage with such singers as Marian Anderson and Jan Peerce in presenting the annual New York recitals of the Bach Aria group.

Yo-Hi Sponsors Box Social

Tomorrow night at 6:30 p. m. Yo-Hi, the off-campus women's organization, is sponsoring a box social at Eastman hall.

Ernie Martz will auction between 70 and 100 boxes to off-campus men, and with the boxes will go milady's company.

Following the auction there will be a cake walk and also cards and dancing.

Next year's Student Council officers include Dave Jerde, president; Don Hill, vice-president; Pete Peterson, secretary; and Jerry Carlson, treasurer.

Jerry Carlson, a freshman geography major from Milaca, is president of the freshman class. His campus activities include band, men's chorus, CHRONICLE and Lambda Chi fraternity.

Candidates also running in the final election were Russ Schneider, for vice-president; Marlys Settergren, for secretary; and John Cleveland for treasurer.

'U' Ed Dean To Speak at Convocation

Dr. Walter Cook, dean of the College of Education at the University of Minnesota, will address students of the Teachers college at tomorrow's convocation.

Also present will be Dr. Paul Grim of the University's College of Education.

Dr. Cook's topic will be "What Modern Schools Are Attempting to Do."

Following his address Dr. Cook will make a tour of the campus with visits to the Psycho-Educational clinic, the laboratory school and library.

In the afternoon he will visit classes and meet with members of the supervisory staff for Professional Experiences and with the Professional Education group.

The latter group is composed of people who teach college classes in philosophy, psychology and education.

Notice

The following classes will meet on Thursday of this week: P. E. 230 (Tennis), P. E. 330 (Golf) and P. E. 238 (Archery). Students enrolled in these classes are to bring their class cards. The classes will meet at their regular time.

Science Congress Entries Total 68; Schedule Set

A total of 68 entries have been received from high schools sending students to participate in the Third Annual Science congress next Saturday.

Entries are still being received. At present the listing of high schools includes Hutchinson, Willmar, Little Falls, South St. Paul, Lester Prairie, St. Cloud Tech, Anoka, St. Louis Park, Minnehaha Academy in Minneapolis, New London, Brainerd and Fergus Falls.

Events for the day have been scheduled as follows:

Registration in the main entrance of Stewart hall will take place from 9 to 9:30 a.m. Exhibits will be set up in the science laboratories on the third floor during this time.

Exhibition of projects is scheduled from 9:30 a.m. to 12. Lunch in the college cafeteria will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. During this time science movies will be shown in the Stewart hall auditorium.

At 1:30 p.m. a general assembly will be held in the auditorium with Don Carpenter, general chairman of the congress, presiding. At this time greetings will be given by Fred Snyder, president of the College Academy of Science.

Also giving greeting addresses will be Mr. Edwin A. Gustafson, president of the Central Minnesota Science Teachers; Mr. C. O. Bemis, chairman of the division of mathematics and science at the Teachers college; and Mr. D. S. Brainerd, vice-president of the Teachers college. Fred Snyder will give the recognition of judges.

Program Ends 2 Months' Work

John L. to Brave River Once More

Jennie Parsons (Joyce Pearson) and others look on horrified as Brack Weaver (Budd Redburn) struggles with Thomas Bouche (Bruce Melenich). The scene is from the opera, "Down in the Valley," in which Brack Weaver is sentenced to die for the killing of Thomas Bouche.

Last weekend's presentations of "Down in the Valley," saw the culmination of nearly two months of concentrated efforts on the part of four departments of the college: music, speech, art and physical education.

The auditorium was filled to near capacity for both performances of what Mr. Harvey Waugh, musical director, described as "the most cooperative venture in my 19 years at St. Cloud."

Preceding the opera the Choral club and modern dance group presented a "Festival of Folk Music." Janet Raymond was the soloist in "Early in the Spring;" Ronald Grandahl and Bob Mullally shared solo duties as vocalist and drummer in "Go Down Death." Miss Ruth Gant of the faculty supplied piano interludes.

The college orchestra not only accompanied the opera, but also played two numbers before the opera.

Directors of the production were: Mr. Harvey Waugh, music; Mr. Raymond Federer, drama; Miss Eva McKee, dances; and Mr. Roger Barrett, assistant music director.

The famous channel swimmer of St. Cloud Teachers college, John L. Everhart, has announced that he will brave the Mississippi again this year. The date for his swim has been set for Thursday, April 23.

John L.'s trainer, Brendan "Mack" McDonald, has announced that the swimmer is in fine shape for the ordeal. "I expect him to make it," said Mack.

A brass band will be on hand to spur John L. on when he makes his leap into the river.

Summer Jobs Open In City

Mr. Loren W. Thorson, superintendent of recreation in St. Cloud, announced last week that there are openings in the recreation department this summer. Playground supervisors, swimming pool guards and nature specialists are needed for work this summer.

According to Mr. Thorson, about 75 percent of the summer staff is composed of Teachers college students.

All applicants should apply in person at the city recreation office in the city hall, said Mr. Thorson.

Huskies Open at St. John's Tomorrow

Black Returns;
Rainy Weather
Hinders Drills

Coch John Kasper had some good news and some bad the past week as his baseball squad prepared for the season's practice game opener at St. John's tomorrow afternoon.

The good news was that last year's regular first baseman Rollo Black had decided to go out for the squad after all. Rollo earlier in the year had given up baseball drills because of a conflicting work schedule.

On the gloomy side of the Husky picture was the rainy weather that kept Kasper's squad inside all week. Kasper had counted on some outside batting practices before the team opens with a scrimmage at Collegeville tomorrow.

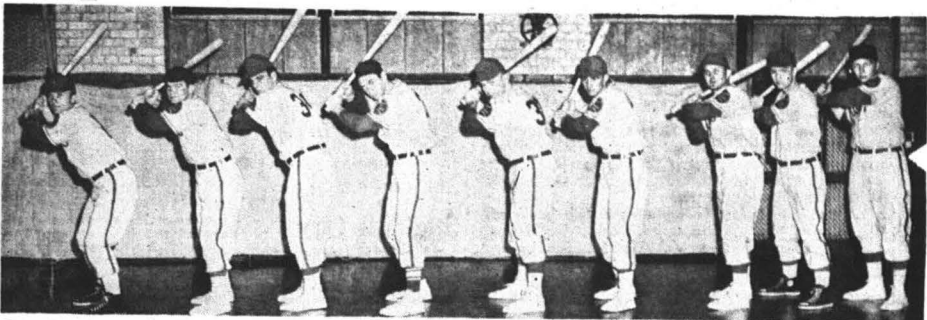

The Huskies will be going against a Johnnie squad that is well situated at every position except pitching. St. Cloud will also be pretty well set. Kasper is still trying to fill two holes left by last year's graduation.

Without a doubt, the Huskies' strongest position is catching. Virg Deering, last year's top hitter, and Ernie Martz are expected to handle the catching chores with two other backstoppers, Ade Pitman and Boeey Dvorak, moving to regular outfield positions to provide the squad with more hitting punch.

Other lettermen from last season who will be near certain starters are Darrell Lilleberg at third base, Jerry Reichel at second and Black at first. Shortstop and one outfield position will be filled by new men.

Veteran Lou Branca, who developed a sore arm last spring, could make the team's pitching staff one of the best in years; that is if his throwing arm is "as good as new" this spring. Along with Lou are lettermen Wally Johnson and Dennis Berger. Two freshmen, Ed Meyer and John Houtz, the Huskies' only left-handed hurler, are expected to add needed depth to the mound staff.

The Huskies will open their Bi-State conference schedule with a doubleheader at Eau Claire on April 25. All Bi-State games will be doubleheaders, incidentally. The home twin bills will all be played at municipal stadium.

Baseball Notes

This is the fourth year for John Kasper as head baseball coach at TC. John's teams have won 30 and lost 15 in the past three years, with last year's team having the best record—a 11-6 mark. Cleanup hitter Ade Pitman blasted six home runs in the 1952 season and led the team in RBIs. Notice something peculiar about the Huskie lineup? Yep, they all bat from the right side. Could be that they won't face too many southpaw chucks this spring.

Volleyball Tonight; Baseball and Softball Leagues Open Soon

The intramural volleyball league is now completely organized, and games will be played tonight at Eastman hall. Eddie Colletti, IM director, requests that all volleyball players check the schedule on the Eastman bulletin board.

Besides volleyball, badminton and table tennis will be played each Tuesday evening.

As soon as weather permits the outdoor IM program will get into full swing. There will be a softball league, a baseball league and a tennis tournament.

TC Track Squad Relies Heavily On Freshmen

With the track season just around the corner, student coach Jim Stanek is founding his track squad into condition for its first meet with St. John's at Collegeville. Lack of material has forced Stanek to rely heavily on freshmen prospects and four returning lettermen.

Lettermen include Don Buege in the weight division, Paul Petersen in the hurdles and high jump, Gerald Gustafson in the 880 yard dash, and Don Hill in the 440 yard dash.

One of the most promising prospects so far seems to be Herm Simonson, a freshman from Milaca. Herm has shown tremendous endurance while running in the mile event. Other freshmen hopefuls include John Little from Minneapolis Southwest in the two mile, Jim Boss from Dawson in the mile, Don Hartzell from Lynd in the weights, and Jim Froberg from Chicago City in the weights and dashes.

Don Reedstrom in the dashes and hurdles, Jerry Harrington in the pole vault, and Del Muckey in the 880 yard dash round out the Huskie squad.

GIRL'S SHORTS

I'd like to catch up on a little old business, that of the district physical education meeting at Sioux Falls a number of weeks ago.

This convention was attended by 60 colleges from nine states. We at St. Cloud had nine students and two faculty members, Miss Marie Case and Miss Charlotte Curran. All reported on having a very fine time (especially some of the students!). Marilyn Skalbeck made a slight gain by attending the convention, that of a complete gym outfit and a wiskit racket and ball.

Wiskit is a new game that the girls learned while down there. Shirli Scholten got herself a new sweat shirt with her initials on it.

Tonight there is a very important meeting of the WAA. It should be remembered that it is just a few weeks until the state WAA playday will be held here. Every one of the members will be needed to put this deal over, so how about it? Tonight at 7 p.m. in room one at Eastman hall.

This past weekend the state physical education meet was held here. In the afternoon a student's section was held and in the morning the girl majors were guinea pigs for a tennis demonstration by Eddie Colletti.

Last week our friend Miss Eva McKee was working hard on her sewing ability and now she is running around with some of the oddest colored hands one has ever seen. One day they are green, the next black, and the next purple. It seems that this all ties up with the opera. Miss McKee was the one that took care of the dancers, which, by the way, was an excellent job.

Many different people have commented how they enjoyed the Modern dance group and they now seem to appreciate this type of dancing since the opera. Our hats go off to Miss McKee for her terrific job.

The Major-Minor club is sponsoring the all-college roller skating party April 17 at the Ballerina Ballroom. The price for this will not exceed 25 cents and we are hoping that the amount will be smaller. We are hoping that everyone will get that night open and come out for an evening of fun.

Free Minds Necessary, Need Academic Freedom

"We, the people, are self-governing," says Alexander Meiklejohn of the University of Wisconsin. "That is why our minds must be free."

Freedom of the mind is a necessity for the continuance of our democracy, and when we begin to destroy that freedom those destructive tendencies tend to become a disease that will in time annihilate the scholar, or "man thinking," altogether.

Academic freedom in colleges is the basis of the freedom of the mind in modern countries. Freedom is necessary here to separate that which is true from that which is not true or is less true.

"The value of academic freedom is not only that one is free to teach the truth as one sees it; but also that one is free to learn from those with whom one disagrees," says Joseph E. Baker of the State University of Iowa.

"Real scholars want to hear theories that they may know to be demonstrably false, and to weigh, seriously, emotional appeals they are sure to reject. How else can thinking be advanced?" asks Mr. Baker.

We should always weigh our views against the views of others, and in this way gain a better realization of truth. There is no view from which we cannot gain something.

Lariats to Whirl At Western Show, Dance On Saturday

Lariats and spurs will be taken out of mothballs by college students next Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. when Lambda Chi Beta fraternity sponsor: a Western Whirling-ding.

A good movie will be shown at 7:30 p.m., according to Lee Brownell and Dick Nelson, members of the committee. Following the movie a dance will be held in the first floor lounge. Refreshments will be served in the second floor lounge.

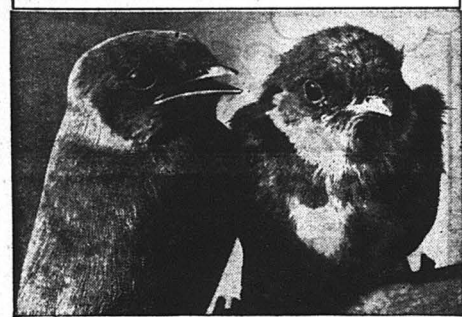

Prizes for the best men's and women's western costumes will be offered. Other prizes will be given for the longest, blackest, blondest and "best try" at beard growing during the dance intermission.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

"LISTEN, BIRD-BRAIN, don't get soot, but I cooed never love you," said Sheedy's little chickadee. "Your hair's strictly for the birds! Better remember the three cardinal rules for social success so you won't be an also-wren. 1. Hop to a toilet goods counter. 2. Peck up a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's Favorite Hair Tonic. Contains Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Grooms the hair. Relieves dandruff. Removes goose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. 3. Use it daily and people will love you." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil for himself and a diamond wing for his sweetiepie. Better buy a bottle or tube today. Or ask for it at your barber's. If you don't you're cookoo!

Paintings by '50 Grad To Be Displayed In Library

On display this week on the first floor of the Kiehle library will be a number of paintings which have been received by the art department.

They were painted by Edward Lewis, who is a 1950 graduate of St. Cloud with an art major.

Since then, he has received his master's degree and is now head of the art department at Sioux Falls college in South Dakota.

Students Plan Music Recital

The second in a series of student recitals will be held on Tuesday evening, April 21, at 8:15 p.m. in the Stewart hall auditorium.

Students taking part in the recital include Lola Smith, mezzo soprano, Eddie Burk, baritone, George Mantz, baritone, and Mary Alice Raitor, pianist. Accompanists include Ruth Iverson, Janet Raymond, and Mary Alice Raitor.

The vocal soloists are students of Mrs. Helen Steen Huls while Mary Alice is a student of Miss Ruth Gant.

Change One's Personality In the Spring? I Say 'No'

By Audrey Ekdahl

Each year when spring comes wooing around the corner one realizes that one is tired of one's personality; at least this one does. Because I think it would be nice to have a fresh personality to go with the new season, I've been casting about for some possibilities that I could change to.

I suppose one could try being the scholarly type. The best way to do this is to spend every Saturday morning in the library reading up on the Pragmatic Sanction of Bourges and memorizing the conjugation of all the irregular German verbs.

And if there's any extra time, it might be well to learn the correct way to dissolve a diminished ninth chord. There's only one drawback; I'm afraid I might clutter up my otherwise neat brain with useless information, and we wouldn't want that to happen.

Now that I've abandoned my lofty aims of leading a scholar's life, I am free to stay with the idea of becoming the witty, gay-companion type. And it would have been possible for me to laugh and tell jokes if a tragedy hadn't occurred. My rabbit died. So the role of Laughing Gryll is definitely out.

I've been considering trying the outdoor type, the kind who rises at 4:30 a. m. to tramp into the country to hear bird calls but this doesn't appeal to me at all.

I much prefer rising at noon and for exercise, hiking over to the window to watch the calisthenics class perform. Briskly turning the pages of a "True Confessions" magazine is another excellent sport.

I'd like to be the bored blasé type of person, the Hepburnish sort who always says, "Oh, really?" I've rehearsed this line over and over, but it usually comes out in a breathless ecstatic rush, not at all bored-sounding. So I'm on the verge of giving up the blasé type—it's too difficult.

Maybe I should give my all in being the tactful type. It would be novel not to be constantly blurring out some fearsome blunder. But if we're always tactful, no one would trust me. They'd think I was just being kind and I'd begin to hate myself for my insincerity. I'd much rather hate myself for being tactless.

With all this talk it appears that I've convinced myself to keep the same personality I've had. It's not much to brag about, but it's all my own.

Jenson, Nelson Return From AWS Ohio Confab

Sandra Jenson, next year's AWS president, and Marilyn Nelson, past president, attended the 14th biennial national convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Women students at Ohio State University at Columbus on April 2-5.

Marilyn, who attended the AWS regional convention at Pennsylvania State college last year, stated that this year's convention was "a personal inspiration as well as offering many possibilities for a better AWS program at TC."

Some of the speakers that addressed the delegates were Margaret Culin, Banning, author; Mrs. Althea Kraty Hotel, project director for the Women's division of the American Council on Education; Judge Florence E. Allen, the only woman Federal judge; Mrs. Margaret Wycoff Zapoleon, Occupational Outlook director from the US Department of Labor; and Colonel Mary J. Shelly, director of Women in the Air Force.

Delegates from about 100 colleges and universities attended the convention, including three Minnesota colleges, the University, Carleton and St. Cloud.

"The delegates themselves were the most outstanding part of the convention," said Marilyn. "Their interest in the progress of women, education and national and international affairs was truly inspirational. The need for a broader AWS program here was clearly shown."

Male Quartet In Weekly Radio Show

The Male Quartet will present the program on this Thursday's "On Campus" show, heard over radio station KFAM.

Their program will include "Now It Is Time to Sing," by Chopin; "Kentucky Babe," arr. by Gebel; "I've Got Shoes," arr. by Bartholomew; "Dry Bones," arr. by Watson; and "Deep Night," by Henderson.

Following these selections will be a group of barbershop songs. They are "Shine on Me," arr. from an old hymn by Martin; "Pretty Baby," "Coney Island Baby," "While Strolling Thru the Park," and a medley.

Members of the quartet are Ron Grandahl, first tenor; Bob Meyer, second tenor; Eddie Burke, baritone; and Wally Johnson, bass. Miss Myrl Carlsen is director and accompanist for the group.
