Pictured above are Virginia Kertscher, Grace McIntyre, and Gretchen Zimmerman as they portray characters in the Play "Ladies in Retirement." The play was given by the speech department on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights under the direction of Mr. Raymond Pedersen. Virginia and Grace played the parts of two neurotic sisters, Louisa and Emily Creed, and Gretchen had the part of the murderess.

Suspense Keynotes 'Ladies in Retirement'

Editor's note: The following review of the speech play, "Ladies in Retirement," was written by Mrs. Frank Barnes of St. Cloud. Mrs. Barnes directed a "little-theatre" movement two years ago here in St. Cloud. At the present time, she is a housewife and operator of the local Barnes Nursing Home.

"Why . . . I even forgot they were kids I knew!" High praise indeed for the talents displayed Wednesday evening by the actors in the speech department's presentation of "Ladies in Retirement."

The rapt attention and lack of restlessness in the audience gave proof to the fact that the actors captured and held the mood of suspense as it moved gradually forward from the beginning of the play to the crashing climax of Act I.

With the beginning of Act II began the gradual disintegration of the life of Ellen, the central character, as portrayed faithfully and relentlessly by Gretchen Zimmermann. Albert, her irresponsible and irresistible nephew was admirably played by Douglas Colbert.

Harriet Whipkey delineated with skill and perception the role of Leonora Fiske, one-time actress and recipient now of somewhat questionable income, doomed by her very generosity to die for it.

Louisa and Emily Creed, the two slightly mad sisters of Ellen, were cleverly and engagingly played by two young women, Virginia Kertscher and Grace McIntyre, whose portrayals were so realistic that the audience completely forgot that they were school mates.

Students Urged to Have X-Rays Taken This Week

All students are asked to take advantage of the free chest x-ray which will be given on campus tomorrow and Thursday. Miss Lillie Astrup, health service nurse, has asked the cooperation of everyone in this project.

Students will receive appointment slips in the P.O. boxes as to the time when the x-ray will be taken. If the appointment is unable to be kept, it should be notified the Health service for a re-scheduling.

Last year approximately 90 per cent of the students were x-rayed and this year Miss Astrup is looking for an even bigger representation. She wishes to emphasize the importance of the project, in that it is the best way for detecting tuberculosis, a disease which can be cured if caught in time. Other diseases such as lung cancer and heart disease can also be detected.

'Kiss Me Kate' To Be Presented

On November 14

The musical stage play, "Kiss Me Kate," will be presented in the Technical High school auditorium on Saturday evening, November 14 at 8:30 p. m. The program is being sponsored by St. Cloud Junior Chamber of Commerce with the proceeds going to the Youth Activities of St. Cloud.

The cast of singers, dancers and comedians come directly from New York City.

All seats for the performance are reserved with ticket prices set at $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50. They are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office, Metzroths clothing store, and Fandels department store. Mail orders will be honored by writing to the Chamber of Commerce.

All-College Mixer Set for Saturday

Talaha lodge will be the center of an all-college mixer sponsored by the Square Dance club at 8 p. m. on Saturday.

The dance will feature both modern and old time music, along with other entertainment and refreshments. The dance is free of charge and everyone is welcome.

Baritone, Soprano to Give Concert Tomorrow Night

A duo concert by Fred Waring baritone Ralph Isbell and Broadway soprano, Karol Loraine will be presented in Stewart hall auditorium at 8:15 tomorrow evening. This is their first tour of the Upper Midwest and each is recognized as a soloist. Representatives of the Concert, Theatre and Lecture Service of the University of Minnesota heard auditions last fall in New York and selected the two vocalists to be a part of their program for this year.

Ralph Isbell is taking time out from his regular appearances on the Fred Waring television show. Shortly after his current tour of the Midwest, he will complete his cross-country jaunt to appear with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

Last summer the baritone traveled even further afield from his usual New York location. He presented a series of solo concerts in Europe, returning to New York just in time to rejoin the famous Fred Waring group when it resumed its TV productions in the fall.

The program will include numbers by favorite composers such as George Gershwin, Rudolph Friml and Victor Herbert. Such light operas as "Porgy and Bess" and "Blossom Time" will also be presented.

Stunt Program Set for Friday

"Fun for Your Money," a stunt program combining the best features of Truth and Consequences, People are Funny, Beat the Clock and the Lucky Buck Stunt, will be given by the Social Activities committee in the Stewart hall auditorium on Friday night at 8 p. m. Student chairmen for the all-college entertainment are Sharon Ottinger and Lyle Schmidt.

Pete Peterson will act as master of ceremonies for the evening program with the audience playing an active part in serious competition for real authentic prizes.

President Gives Preview Of AACTE Evaluation

Dr. George F. Budd, president of the college, addressed the student body at last Tuesday's convocation in regard to the coming evaluation visit of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

He began with a few opening remarks concerning the success of the 1953 homecoming celebrations. Dr. Budd then referred to a few of the problems which are confronting us at the present time. He mentioned that the student body and faculty should work together to improve the general appearance of the buildings on campus. The parking situation was also mentioned.

The announcement was made that the mobile x-ray unit will be on campus November 4 and 5. All of the students were urged to make use of this opportunity for a free x-ray.

Everyone was asked to attend the convocation scheduled for November 3. Dr. Boma Gans will speak to the student body. "She is a very dynamic speaker and everyone will enjoy listening to her," said Dr. Budd.

Dr. Budd gave the brief background of the AACTE. He stated that St. Cloud is one of the 269 professional schools that meets the standards set up by the organization.

On November 15, 16 and 17 an AACTE evaluation team will visit the campus.

This organization is new and is a merger between three national accrediting associations. They revised their standards to fit teacher organizations on university campuses as well as regular teachers colleges.

There are three main steps to this evaluation. First, the faculty will analyze the program; the team visits the campus; and finally, the visiting team will send its report to the faculty.

The faculty uses the suggestions to improve their standards. These standards include the following seven points: the objective of the college, the student personnel setup, the preparation of the faculty, the teaching load of the faculty, the curriculum offered, the professional laboratory experience and the library.

Dr. Budd announced that there is a committee set up to investigate each of the standards here at St. Cloud. There are schedules available to anyone interested.

The team will want to talk to students. Whether team members speak to students by appointment or informally in the cafeteria or lounge, Dr. Budd urged everyone to be pleasant and helpful. The ideas they express are an important part of the evaluation.

He concluded with a statement that a college never falls in a report but the purpose of the group is to aid colleges to improve their present status.

Treasurer Val Bjornson

Bjornson Will Speak at Next Tuesday's Convo

An Armistice Day convo will be held next Tuesday morning with Mr. Val Bjornson, state treasurer of Minnesota, scheduled to speak. Mr. Bjornson is a World War I veteran and has had considerable experience in speaking for patriotic holidays.

Also included on the program will be several selections by the Choral club under the direction of Mr. Harvey Waugh. They will sing "Immortal Love," by Maryott and "Praise Universal," by Mueller. "Souls of the Righteous," by Noble will be done by a smaller group.

All veterans organizations and their auxiliaries have been invited to send representatives to the program.

The Future Teachers of America will co-sponsor the convo with the veterans organizations in connection with American Education Week to be held November 8-14.

Commencement Set For December 3

Fall Quarter commencement will be held on Thursday evening, December 3. It will be a program of music, under direction of Miss Carlson. Approximately 40 students will graduate.

Stout Passes Halt Huskie Win Streak

By Lloyd Olson

The St. Cloud Huskies suffered their first defeat of the season last Saturday afternoon bowing 19-7 to the Wisconsin college conference cellar team, Stout Institute.

Stout took the opening kickoff on the 10 and ran it to the 27 yard line. The first play took the ball to the Huskie 38-yard line. The second play placed the ball on the Huskies' seven-yard line. The defense held and Stout punted out to the 43.

They were forced to punt following another series of downs and the Huskies took over on their own 20. The first play saw a fumble recovered by Stout on the 16. A pass to the three-yard line set up the first score. The kick was wide and Stout led 6-0.

St. Cloud was forced to punt following the kickoff and Stout took over on their own 35-yard line. The second score came on a long 30-yard pass to the Huskies' 35-yard line and a run from there for the touchdown. They again passed and it was good for the extra point.

St. Cloud then took the kickoff on the 30 and in four plays scored against the Institute. From the 50-yard stripe, Jim Haben threw a 20-yard pass to Roy Grove on the 30 and the Babe went all the way. Mel Fisher kicked the point and the score was 13-7.

Stout lost the ball on a fumble recovered by Tom Green on the Huskies' 34, but time ran out before they could score. The ball was on Stout's 10-yard line as the half ended.

St. Cloud fumbled the kick-off to start the second half. A holding penalty nullified a Stout touchdown and the Huskies took over on their own 6-yard line.

The Huskies then had a pass intercepted on their own 37. Stout was forced to punt, but a roughing penalty gave them the ball on the 27. This time they were stopped by a fumble recovered by Virg Deering on the 10-yard line.

On the following play the Huskies fumbled and Stout recovered on the 12. Don Hill then knocked down a pass in the end zone and Stout fumbled again. Mel Fisher recovered on the 10 but the Huskies were forced to punt to the 44-yard line.

On a series of line plays Stout advanced the ball to the 10-yard line. From that spot, an off-tackle play was good for the third Stout score. The kick was poor and the score remained 19-7 for the Wisconsin team.

The Huskies last minute tries for a score were stopped on two occasions by pass interceptions. Stout displayed some excellent passing and a very fine pass defense. Also the fellows that punted for the Institute managed to kick within the Huskies 20-yard line on all but one occasion.

A portrait of dejection. Coach Les Luymes probably expressed the feelings of the Huskie gridders after they went down to their first defeat of the year. (Staff photo by Bud Ulven)

The intramural touch football race has come to a close with the Farm Hall crew on top, followed closely by the Growlers.

Ironically enough, the only blemish on Farm Hall's record came at the hands of the Growlers. The Growlers tied Farm Hall boys 6-6, and later defeated them 18-12. The Growlers lost their only game to Hamm's 12-6, and were tied also by the Cottontails 6-6.

Some of the members of the Farm Hall club are Don Peterson, Howie Olson, Bud Henzel, Jerry Hirshey, Mel Nygren and Jim Baxter. The Growlers club is composed of Don Hartzell, Frank Dusak, Gordon Paulson, Jack Nieboer, Willie Nelson, Roland Anderson, Don Nicholson and Brendan McDonald.

The intramural touch football race has come to a close with the Farm Hall crew on top, followed closely by the Growlers.

Ironically enough, the only blemish on Farm Hall's record came at the hands of the Growlers. The Growlers tied Farm Hall boys 6-6, and later defeated them 18-12. The Growlers lost their only game to Hamm's 12-6, and were tied also by the Cottontails 6-6.

Anonymous Student Receives an Undesirable Paper in P. O. Box

The dreaded day has come and gone. Real gone. The day dawned gray and cloudy. I had a feeling, as I crawled out of bed, that something was brewing.

As I passed through the huge metal portals into the institution to which I had been previously assigned, I noticed the feeling of depression that seemed to be hanging over my fellow students. No one shouted gaily. "Boy, what a party at the Hub last night." (This usually means trouble.)

Many of them carried small white envelopes limply in their little paws. I could see that these people had heard the "worst." Some unexplainable force drew me from the rows of brown metal stalls to a small room at my left.

I could tell by looking at the entrance that this room just didn't have it. The doors were not marked. Some of the crazy, mixed up kids were going in the exit and still others (oh, woe is me) were going out the entrance. What is this younger generation coming to?

As I added my form to the line at the exit, I could hear low moans being emitted from within. I was becoming more nervous as I waited. And suddenly, I was standing face to face with a row of windows. Each was numbered and each was padlocked tightly.

I stepped bravely up to the one reading 538. (These cells are called P.O.'s in memory of a late professor, I think.) I finally got the combination right and quickly opened the door. My hands were cold and clammy with anticipation. Before I could look in to its deep confines, I heard a scream. I jumped as the girl next to me began jumping up and down (on my foot) and screaming joyously. "I didn't get one."

I proceeded more bravely now. I looked with one eye and sure enough, there it lay—a "D slip."

I walked out grumbling. "That Mr. Parich never did like me, and besides he can't play the drums as well as he thinks he can. So there!"

Moral: As they say in the old country "You gotta take the aches with the breaks."

Editor's note: For reasons of her own, the "journalist" who composed the above bit of stuff has asked to remain anonymous.

Juvenile Library Features Attractive Interior Display

The juvenile library, located in the old library building and under the direction of Mrs. Sue Moss, has recently been brightened up with a new coat of paint. A display is maintained in the entry way by student teachers at Riverview.

Riverview students, student teachers and their supervisors have set up displays of the students' favorite books there this past week. There are three separate displays, one for the lower grades, one for the intermediate age group and one for the teenagers.

Some of these are "Little Black Sambo," "Peter Pan," "Twas the Night Before Christmas," "Winnie The Pooh," "Silver Chisel," "Christopher Columbus," "Going On Sixteen," "Black Stallion," "Alice In Wonderland," "Treasure Island" and "The Robin Hood."

The Eighth grade at Riverview maintains a bulletin board which they change weekly. Items of interest to all students are displayed here.

The juvenile library is of interest to all who plan to become elementary teachers but others are also invited to drop in there to browse around.

New Magazine Lists

In the recreational reading room of the Kiehle library can be found two new magazine lists. One has the periodicals classified by title and the other by subject with an index guide telling whether the articles appear in the Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature or the Art Index.

These lists were composed to assist the students in finding material in periodicals more rapidly.

Speech Play

whose susceptibility Albert played, was charmingly done by Judith Peterson.

Sister Theresa, a simple soul, was played by Colleen Niles. Her characterization rounded out a well chosen cast whose presentation of "Ladies in Retirement" gave the audience a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

Mr. Raymond Pedersen should be commended for the excellent job he did in directing the production.

From the opening curtain to the last moment of the play the lighting reflected the mood of every scene, highlighting the gayer bits and characterizing the somber moods with subdued effects.

LATEST COLLEGE SURVEY SHOWS LUCKIES LEAD AGAIN

We're not so formal way out west—
We're casual as can be,
But we know, just like everyone,
That L.S./M.F.T.!

Mary Ann Schauermann
Colorado State College

Last year a survey of leading colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette.

This year another nation-wide survey—based on thousands of actual student interviews, and representative of all students in regular colleges—shows that Luckies lead again over all brands, regular or king size...and by a wide margin! The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.

Smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste, and the fact of the matter is Luckies taste better—for 2 reasons. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And Luckies are made better to taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Joe grumbled, "Guess I'll never find
A cigarette I like,
Till freshness and good taste combined
Sold him on Lucky Strike!"

Philip Angus Cutting
Tufts College

I can't orate like Cicero—
My salesmanship lacks pressure;
But Luckies sell themselves because They're cleaner, smoother, fresher!

WAA Activities

We have a few girls from St. Cloud that attended the state W.A.A. meeting in Duluth last week-end. They were Jeanie Zevnick, Jane Aurndt, and Dot Griesert.

St. Scholastica and UMD combined to put this state meeting on. The group discussed W.A.A. problems and new ideas and methods.

Tonight at 7 p. m. the W.A.A. is holding their regular meeting in Room 1 of Eastman hall. All members are urged to attend for the annual picture will be taken.

Field hockey is under way now and there is always room for more. The league has been cut to Tuesday - Thursday situation again.

The next meeting of the Major-club will be held at the Sue Swanson residence. Sue has offered to feed the group as sort of her farewell to the club.
