FILE NO. B-938

William Mund was born in Prussia, Germany on January 12, 1847. He came to Stearns County, Luxemburg, with his father and mother, William and Celia (Guy) Mund at the age of nine years.

William Mund Jr. worked for his father on their homestead at Saint Augusta, where they were forced with many hardships, such as Indian raids and grasshoppers. These hardships did not discourage good pioneers such as they. At the age of nineteen William Mund, Jr. married Margaret Riechards, daughter of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Bernardie) Rieschard a native of Luxemburg, Germany, on the 23rd day of April in the Catholic Church in St. Augusta, Minnesota. After his marriage William remained on his father's farm which later became his. William Mund, Sr. died October 7, 1888.

William and Margaret (Rieschard) Mund had ten children born to them. They are respectively: John, Nicholas, Frank, John, Peter, William, Cecelia, Mary, Elizabeth, and Margaret, who died at the time of birth.

Margaret (Richard) Mund died September fifth 1916 leaving her children and husband.

William Mund later married Mrs. Mary Staples. They had one daughter, Victoria. William Mund passed away the 15th of April 1921.
