Cecilians and Orchestra Combine For Annual Formal Spring Concert

Faculty Attends Meeting

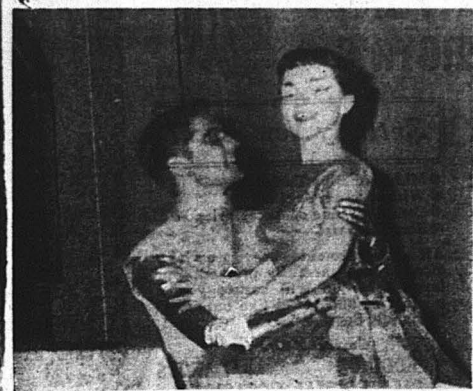

Ten St. Cloud State Teachers college faculty members attended the annual regional meeting of the Association for Student teaching on Friday and Saturday, April 20 and 21 at Northern State Teachers college, Aberdeen, S.D.

Miss Grace Nugent, Riverview fourth grade supervisor and national president of the Association for Student teaching, was the main speaker at the closing luncheon at noon on Saturday.

Others from St. Cloud who attended the meeting include Dr. William Cotton, chairman of the Professional Laboratory Experiences division; Mr. A. H. Schelske, principal of Riverview school; Mrs. Florence Dunn Bennett, Mrs. Virginia Chirhart, Miss Charlotte Curran, Dr. Roy Edelfelt, Mr. Paul Ingwell, Mr. William Nunn, and Miss Mary Petersen.

Ondine Plays to Three Packed Houses

"Ondine," the spring production of the drama department, played to capacity houses here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, starring Barbara Bossus and Vincent Kuiper. The play was noteworthy for the unusual stage effects. Among the outstanding features was the use of transparent walls.

The blithe water sprite Ondine is held in the arms of the handsome knight Hans in this scene from the first act of the spring play "Ondine." This three act fantasy by Jean Giraudoux was presented by the Players club April 18-20. The leading roles, Ondine and Hans, were played by Barbara Bossus and Vincent Kuiper. Taking the parts of other major characters were: Carol Conklin, Bertha; Dennis Dalen, The Lord Chamberlain; Vernon Wenberg, Auguste; and Gretchen Zimmerman, Eugenie. The production, directed by Mr. Audley Grossman and Joanne Filkins, featured sets designed by Rolapd Fischer and costumes by Pat Goodhand.

Tomorrow night, Wednesday, April 25 at 8:15 p.m., the Cecilians and the College Orchestra will combine to present their annual formal spring concert. This performance is open to the public and no admission will be charged.

The Cecilians will begin the concert by singing "Pastoral" by Carey, "Holy, Lord God" by Noble Cain, "Musetta's Waltz" (from "La Boheme") by Puccini and Howorth, "I Wish I Wuz" by Lyn Murray, and "Joy of Spring" by Klemm.

The orchestra will continue with the playing of "The Pearl Fishers Overture" by Bizet, "Hansel and Gretel Selection" by Humperdinck, "Legend" by Isaac, Concerto for organ and orchestra in B flat major number two from opus four by Handel. This concerto will feature Mr. Robert Laudon of the college faculty on the organ.

To close the concert, the orchestra and the Cecilians will join together and perform the cantata "In Woodland" by Richard Kountz. Included in this cantata are Woodland Zepher, In Praise of Nature, Singing Bird, The Oak, The Brooklet and The Storm.

Staging for the cantata, making special use of lighting effects, is done by the drama department under direction of Mr. Audley Grossman.

Twelve Attend Newman Meeting

Twelve members of Newman club attended the regional Newman club conference at Fargo, North Dakota on April 13, 14, and 15. Sandy Banker, a St. Cloud Teachers college junior from Minneapolis, was presiding officer of this conference. The students were accompanied by Father Illies, advisor of the club.

834 Cast Ballots In Council Election

In student council balloting last Tuesday, a total of 834 votes were cast. The light turnout elected Larry Harmsen student council president, Vincent Kuiper, vice president, Muriel Brattland, secretary and Bill Larimer, treasurer.

Larry Harmsen

Harmsen, a junior next year, is from Pipestone. He succeeds Jim Baxter as student council head.

According to Baxter, an orientation program for the new officers has been set up by the student council and is under way now. Under the program, the new officers will be oriented to their new duties during the last part of the present year while the old student council is still in office.

Class representatives will be elected at a later time.

'Formal' Notes on Dating Or, Watch Calamity Jane

by Grace Hillstrom

I'd like to drop a hint to the boys who are thinking of attending the spring formal this year: It isn't any too soon to begin getting your dates. The formal is only about three weeks away and it is an occasion no girl wants to be asked to at the last minute.

I've been told that many of the young men on campus are shy and bashful, therefore, find it difficult to get a date for the dance because they are wary of asking a girl. If this is the case, these boys should think seriously about asking a girl now, because it may take them a week or so to make the final step.

I've gathered some suggestions from different sources on how to make it easier for a young man to ask a girl to this big occasion. We hope that they may be of some help.

First of all, the library is a perfect setting, especially about 9:30 p.m. If your invitation is accepted you could invite the girl out for coffee and make more detailed arrangements for the dance.

There is, of course, the preliminary manipulation of meeting her at the library, but this shouldn't be much of a problem even for the shy gentlemen.

If you have a not so shy friend, maybe he would give you a hand and line you up with someone. This is widely practiced and can be very successful.

Now the girl who sits next to you in one of your classes would probably love to be your date and no doubt she is hoping that you will ask her. If you can't find your voice, you can always write a note, although this isn't a highly recommended way of obtaining a date.

There are always the boys whose problem is not who or how to ask, but which one to ask. This is not the typical shy student you may be sure. In this case, the most ethical is to make the choice and invite the winner (or loser as the case may be) early enough so that she doesn't accept another invitation.

Just about every girl would like to go to the big dance at the Coliseum. There are the boys who never do get around to asking a girl and they regret it later. Don't let yourself fall into this category.

Now, if you don't like to dance and if you don't want to go, good grief, stay home. But, if you'd enjoy dancing and listening to the Commanders and having a wonderful time, now is the time to begin making plans. (P.S. For you oldsters who think your feet tire too easily, "Calamity Jane" will be shown FREE in Stewart hall auditorium that evening at 7:30 p.m. Oh well, I didn't want to buy a formal anyway . . .)

Daffinities

Life: An everlasting struggle to keep money coming in and teeth and hair from coming out.

Romance: Something that starts out by a waterfall and ends by a leaky faucet.

Hangover: What a person develops from playing pinball machines.

Woman's Tears: The most efficient water powers in the world.

Housebroken: How you feel after you've made a payment on your home.

These students just read the accompanying spring formal feature by the Chronicle's own Lady Chesterfield.

Fashion Notes

Bermudas Tops On Spring Sports Parade

by Sandy Korger

It seems that spring fashions are coming in like songs this year. Just as you may like or dislike songs that are on the hit parade, so you may like or dislike some of the fads and fashions that are making their appearance on the campus.

For instance, a scene that will soon be familiar on the campus portrays "Dungaree Doll" decked out in bermudas—those abbreviated pedal pushers that show the legs to their most glamorous (?) advantage. She also will be wearing the popular blazer (a style borrowed from the boys.) Blazers will be seen everywhere in every variety of fabric, texture and color — stripes being especially prevalent.

Of course, this campus is not complete until a member of the opposite sex arrives on the scene (driving his Jaguar, naturally). This "Mr. Wonderful" also has donned bermudas and he is sporting a snappy "golfer's hat." A swim at the quarries is suggested, and if the couple have exchanged "A Friendship Ring," chances are they might own matching plaid swim suits.

After the swim, the collegiate coed is whisked back to the dorm in order to change outfits for her dinner and dancing date. She probably decides to wear lipstick red linen duster over a pale poppy pink sheath dress. He will probably wear linen slacks and a lightweight cotton shirt but it is doubtful if he will wear "Blue Suede Shoes." Although they may dance to the "Saddle Shoe Boogie," she won't be wearing saddle shoes but, instead, her feet will be graced by the ever popular shell shoes which have taken on a decorated look for dressy occasions.

This "Juke Box Baby" is apt to be thinking about her "First Formal Gown" after her date asks her to the Spring Formal. Bouffant chiffons, crystalles, taffetas and nets will all be equally popular with the girls at St. Cloud this year. A sure-fire fad will be the garter worn just below the knee that either matches or contrasts her formal. Her beau will undoubtedly want to keep it as a souvenir.

Before we "Dim, Dim the Lights" on this everyday (?) college scene we would like to know whether most girls would like to be in the place of this typical coed. Your answer: "No Not Much."

Baseball Team Opens Conference With Double Win

Frosh Pick Up Experience At Carleton Relays

By Joe Long
The St. Cloud Huskies track squad opened their 1956 season last Saturday at the Carleton Relay with few points, but a lot of experience that was badly needed by the frosh-laden team.
St. Cloud's only points came in the mile relay where the foursome of Don Hartzell, Bob Childs, Bernie Wesloh, and Rod Max combined to pick up a fifth place finish.
Though the Huskies failed to pick up points, only an inch here or a tenth of a second there deprived them. For example, Don Hartzell headed the discus 120'11", good for sixth place, but only 3 inches from fourth place. In the 440-yard relay the Huskies placed sixth, as they did in the 880-yard relay.
Good performances were turned in by several team members, bettering their best times to date, but yet not quite good enough to win a point. Cyde Koskela cut nearly a second off his previous best time in the 120-yard high hurdles. Ron Eastman cut 25 seconds off his time in the mile, and John John Weitzel broad jumped 19'6". The dash men (Brown, Wesloh, Collins) need only warm weather to get their times down, because all of them got fine starts in Saturday event and led their respective heats until the last few yards of the 100-yard dash.
The highlight of the Carleton Relays was Mankato's Lowell Loewen. Loewen himself scored 25 1/2 points to pace the Indians to the Relays championship. Mankato finished with 56 1/2, and Carleton was second with 48. Loewen scored more points than ten of the fifteen schools entered. He was first in the high hurdles and broad jump, tied for second in the 100-yard dash, fifth in the discus, anchored the winning low hurdles shuttle relay team, and ran leadoff on the winning 880-yard relay team.

Meanwhile, Coach Dick Kirchner expects to have 56 entries in the dual meet with St. John's at Selke field this afternoon. The Johnnies picked up 16 1/2 points at Carleton Saturday and should enter the meet as the favorite, but the Huskies are coming along and may have made enough improvement to pull an upset, because anything can happen when these two schools meet.

GRIDIRON GLOSSARY

Bemidji, Minn. — (ACP) — With fans talking about the next football season, it seemed a good idea to pass along this brief dictionary of football terms. It was originally printed in Coronet magazine and then reprinted in the "Off the Record" column of the Northern Student of Bemidji State Teachers college.
UNBOWED: Close, but you lost.
SCRAPPY: Made a touchdown on the opponent's fourth team.
OUTMANNED: Almost scored in a top-sided white-washing.
GAME: Took the ball up to midfield once.
FEARLESS: Racked up a first down.
DARING: Recovered a fumble.
VALIANT: Kept eleven men out there all the time.
PLUCKY: 99 to 0.

Golfers Vie For Berths

Golf team hopefuls began yesterday on a three day, 36 hole medal round to determine the opening day team. The nine prospects played nine holes yesterday. Nine more are on the agenda today and the final 18 will be played tomorrow. The low scorers for 36 holes will, of course, determine the team for the Stout opener Saturday.
Yesterday afternoon found the tennis team opening its schedule on the new courts at Collegeville. C a s h m a n, Peterson, Bouchard, Strand and Iversrud comprise this year's team. They will accompany the golfers this weekend to Stout where both teams will be gunning for a clean sweep of both matches. Next Monday finds the netmen at Bemidji.
Stout was not on last year's schedule. St. Cloud's netmen, however, defeated some Stout team members in last year's Bi-State meet. The locals split a home-and-home series with Bemidji.

BITS OF THIS AND THAT

There was the reporter for the Mac Weekly who recently called the Rice hall girls' dormitory by mistake. The coed who answered the phone said: "Hello, Rice hall bakery. Which cookie do you want?"

Life Was Unbearable For J. Paul Sheedy* Till Wildroot Cream-Oil Gave Him Confidence

Sheedy's honey kept giving him the cold shoulder. "This is more than I can bear! Why not be nice?" he moaned. "What fur?" she demanded. "It'll be a frosty Friday before I date you again. And just in glacier wondering why, take a look at your shaggy hair." This made Sheedy paws and think. So he got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's the picture of confidence. His hair is handsome and healthy looking, neat but not greasy. Wildroot contains the heart of Lanolin, Nature's finest hair and scalp conditioner. Take Sheedy's advice. Whether your hair is straight or curly, blonde, red, black or bruin, keep it neat with Wildroot Cream-Oil. In bottles or handy tubes. It's the berries!

Grand Forks, N. D. (ACP) — What's it like at Harvard? The University of North Dakota's student newspaper printed this one to give you some idea:
"Not long ago one of the older students at Harvard was complaining to a professor. 'I've been asked everything from the age of my parents to the sex of my unborn children. As a matter of fact I was asked few personal questions and ran into less red tape when I applied for a job with the state department in Washington. That may be true, replied the professor softly, but you must realize we're a much older organization.'"

Next Saturday the Huskies continue their conference schedule with a doubleheader against Stout Institute at Menominee, Wisconsin. Today the Huskies are playing a non-conference game at Carleton College in Northfield.

St. Cloud scored all of their runs in the fifth inning when 14 men came to the plate. It was in this inning that Bob Hawkins hit a home run and Ron Arndt hit a triple.

The stickmen in the first game were Bob Altuvia with 2 for 3, Ron Arndt with 1 for 3, Dave Mooney with 1 for 3, and Ted Grams with 1 for 3.

The second game proved to be a headache for the Huskies. They scored in every inning except the sixth, but could not seem to keep Eau Claire from scoring.

They piled up runs in the first five innings until they led 16-3 going into the bottom half of the fifth. That was a big inning for the Wisconsin team as they got four hits and seven hits off the tiring Roger Hagstrom.

Don Plomberg relieved in the sixth and held Eau Claire to one run.

The Huskies managed to pick up four more runs in the top of the seventh which proved to be very valuable indeed. The highlight of the inning was Bill Carlson's steal of home with the twentieth run.

The seventh inning found Plomberg in trouble. He walked six men and two others got on base by being hit by a pitched ball.

Five runs had scored with two men out when Rog Hagstrom returned to the mound from right field. He pitched to two men, the first getting a hit driving in the more runs. The last man up grounded out to the pitcher.

Next Saturday the Huskies continue their conference schedule with a doubleheader against Stout Institute at Menominee, Wisconsin. Today the Huskies are playing a non-conference game at Carleton College in Northfield.

Huskies Rip Johnnies, 14-1

The St. Cloud Huskies opened their 1956 baseball season under the direction of Coach Paul Meadows last Friday afternoon by handing the St. John's nine a 14-1 defeat.

Left-hander John Houtz went the route for the Huskies while the Johnnies were forced to use four pitchers.

Houtz held St. John's to three hits while St. Cloud rolled up 13 base hits against the combined efforts of Chuch Harrington, John Rian, Norb Kowalkowski, and Russ Fischer.

The big stickers for St. Cloud were Jack Kelly with 2 for 6, Bob Altuvia with 3 for 7, and Dave Mooney with 2 for 4.

Houtz walked four Johnnies and struck out five.

Reisman Trio To Appear May 2

Now on their third tour of the midwest, the Reisman Trio, scheduled to play at St. Cloud State Teachers college on May 2 at 8:15 p.m. in Stewart hall auditorium, has just concluded a most successful second tour of the South and will return to that region for re-engagements next season.

Presenting programs that vary in content, but never in quality, this brilliant and youthful trio has already earned a solid reputation and a devoted following. The Reismans will play several of the best known works for violin, cello and piano and special arrangements of music particularly suited to this instrumentation, including a Strauss waltz, "Jamaican Rhumba" and Liszt's fiery "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2". The program will also feature solos by each of the trio members.

Composed of three charming young sisters, the Reisman Trio is the only professionally concertized piano-violin-cello trio in America that is genuinely a family affair.

Shirley Reisman, the pianist, studied at Fontainebleau Conservatory with the French pianist, Robert Casadesus. Appearing on the concert platform since her childhood, she has performed extensively as a soloist with symphony orchestras and in recital.

Mona Reisman numbers among her teachers the eminent violinist Oscar Shumsky. She has played with the Bach Aria Group orchestra and the Westchester String Quartet. The only one of the sisters to have married thus far, she brought another musician into the family, the violinist William Schoen.

Prices for the concert are one dollar for adults and 50 cents for students. Proceeds from the concert will go toward a music scholarship.
