RAYMOND, EDWARD N.

File No. B-1078

Edward N. Raymond was born in Augusta, Kennebec County, Maine on March 4, 1864. He is the son of Frederick and Mary (Michael) Raymond.

Frederick, Edward's father was born in Lower Canada, on June 16, 1830. In 1839 Frederick Raymond's parents took him to Aroostook County, Maine, United States, where he remained for many years. Frederick was a boat builder by trade, but followed many lines of work after his arrival in St. Cloud in 1867. In 1859, on June 14, Frederick Raymond was married to Miss Mary Michael. This couple had eight children: Anthony, Gilbert, Edward, Sophia, Frederick Junior, George, Abbie, and Young. Frederick Raymond Senior entered the lumber business on which he centered his attentions and efforts until his death on May 1, 1882.

Edward Raymond, whose name heads this biography, attended one of the first public schools in St. Cloud. His first teacher was Rev. E. V. Campbell. After he completed the grades, Edward attended high school for three years. When he completed his schooling he entered the lumber business of his father.

On November 2, 1892 Edward Raymond was married to Maude A. Hasty, a daughter of Warren and Elizabeth Hasty. They were married by Rev. E. V. Campbell with Mrs. U. F. Shattuch and Mrs. J. U. Durant as witnesses. Maude A. Hasty was born in Wright County. The town of Hasty in that county is named after her father Warren Hasty.

Edward N. and Maude A. (Hasty) Raymond have five children: Fay Edward, born March 12, 1894, married Genevieve Catherine Dambly at St. Cloud on January 16, 1917; Rev. Hildebrand Eickhoff performed the marriage, and Anna Kachel and Loren E. Raymond were in attendance to the couple who now live in St. Cloud. Loren Raymond born August 13, 1899 now lives in
