Alexander Spaulding was born in Aroostic county, Maine, in 1839, and came to Maine Prairie in 1857, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Cordelia. He served the town as assessor for nine years. He was the first Postmaster, after the name had been changed, in 1861, to Maine Prairie, and held that office until 1865. He was orderly sergeant of the home guards in 1861. He was one of the enumerators that took the census of the town in the years 1870 and 1875. In connection with operating his farm he has been engaged in carpentering and house building.
