

St. Cloud State University

The Repository at St. Cloud State

WPA Biographic Summaries

University Archives

3-29-1937

Stakemann, Julius

Tresa Gruber

Follow this and additional works at: <https://repository.stcloudstate.edu/wpabio>

Recommended Citation

Gruber, Tresa, "Stakemann, Julius" (1937). WPA Biographic Summaries. 1227.
<https://repository.stcloudstate.edu/wpabio/1227>

This Interview is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at The Repository at St. Cloud State. It has been accepted for inclusion in WPA Biographic Summaries by an authorized administrator of The Repository at St. Cloud State. For more information, please contact tdsteman@stcloudstate.edu.

STAKEMANN, JULIUS

File No. B-1268

Julius Stakemann, born in Lubec, Germany; died in St. Paul. Having wounded his antagonist in a duel, he fled to the United States in 1859; served in the Civil War; published at St. Cloud, Minnesota, Der Nord Stern, a year or two; settled in St. Paul in 1887; engaged in newspaper work and writing for magazines.

Copied from: Minnesota Biographies
Date Copied: March 29, 1937
Copied by: Tresa Gruber