

Twin Farms
Barnard, Vermont

May 14, 1933

Dear Virginia:

Delighted to have your letter, which was forwarded and arrived just last evening. Aunt Dorothy landed from Italy Thursday, and is coming right up here, with Mick. I came up ahead of her arrival to get the place in shape, and now we'll be settled for all summer.

I'm writing to your father today advocating his letting you take the European jaunt. I hope it works. Let me know.

Ever,
Your farmer uncle